Hospital kept at bay

Health ministry yet to get back prime Tejgaon land for hospital from BNP stalwarts

PINAKI ROY and HELEMUL ALAM

The government has been sitting for six months on a probe committee report that recommended cancelling allotment of health ministry land in Tejgaon to a number of media firm owners and BNP loyalists and leaders.

The BNP-Jamaat alliance government distributed plots on at least 14 out of 25 bighas of health ministry land to its loyalists at a cheap rate between 2002 and 2006.

A health ministry probe body was formed during the last caretaker government's era and it recommended taking action against the government officials involved in the process of leasing outland.

The land was originally meant for a hospital and the then prime minister Sheikh Hasina laid the foundation stone for it in 2001.

Presidents and general secretaries of upazilas in Patuakhali, Brahmanbaria, Moulvibazar, Narail and Pabna took part in the

SADARGHAT LEASE TENDER Passengers held hostage by feuding contractors

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The hustle and bustle at the Sadarghat Terminal came to a halt yesterday for five hours as two feuding groups locked in a clash over the control of handling labourers leaving passengers aboard the launches marooned in misery.

Around 200 launches could neither anchor nor leave the terminal for hours leaving passengers trapped inside while hundred of others had to grapple with the chaos on streets outside the terminal to board the launches to get their destinations.

The clash ensued as the Bangladesh Inland Water Transport Authority (BIWTA) invited bidders to drop tenders. As per the tender invitation a contractor Hossain Bepari dropped a tender at the head office of the BIWTA at Motijheel in the capital.

Miffed at the tender dropping by Hossain Bepari, supporters of Dhaka Ghat Shramik League president Mohammad Mahiuddin, the existing lessee of the terminal, went berserk and at one stage two groups swooped on each other.
