

New schedule considered for Pak series

SPORTS REPORTER

Bangladesh Cricket Board (BCB) is looking forward to hold the Pakistan-Bangladesh limited-overs series at the end of this month.

It was learnt that the game's governing body in the country will chalk out a new schedule in a very short time and take the issue to the concerned government authorities.

"Everything would depend on the government decision," said a BCB official on condition of anonymity yesterday.

Ahmed Sajjadul Alam, BCB's director and tour organising secretary, met with the State Minister for Youth and Sports Ahad Ali Sarkar yesterday.

"I met with the minister today and he said that the government is also giving importance to the tour. And he hoped that it would be possible to announce a new schedule in a very short time," said Sajjadul.

BCB is considering a slot from March 26 because it would be difficult for them to find gaps for the tour due to the IPL and Twenty20 World Cup schedules in England.

The Pakistan cricket team were due to arrive in Dhaka today to play two Twenty20 games and five one-day internationals but BCB postponed

Gazi closer to leaders

Cricket

SPORTS REPORTER

Imrul Kayes and Mohammad Ashraful shone with the bat after Saju Datta's four-wicket haul as Gazi Tank removed Old DOHS from the second place with a four-wicket victory in the Premier Cricket League at the Fatullah Stadium yesterday.

With five win in seven games, newcomers Gazi remained two points adrift of joint leaders Biman, Abahani and Surjo Torun who are on 12 points each. DOHS slipped to third position with eight points.

Away at BKSP, a quickfire half-century by Sharifullah helped Victoria register their second win when they handed a 54-run defeat to Young Pegasus. It was Pegasus's sixth defeat in seven rounds.

Defending champions Abahani meet Surjo Torun in a top-of-the-table clash at Fatullah today while Partex face CCS at BKSP. Former Indian international batsman Venugopal Rao, who had left after fifth round, would be available for Abahani today.

GAZI-DOHS

New ball bowler Mukter Ali caused the initial damage before left-arm orthodox Saju claimed four wickets for 32 in his ten-over spell to restrict Old DOHS to 214-9.

Mukter trapped both the openers -- Anhoor Niwaz (4) and Fazle Rabbi (29) -- and made another successful lbw appeal against Mahmudullah Riyad, who top scored 49 off 82 balls without any boundary, to finish with figures of 3-41.

In reply, Gazi lost an early wicket when Anwar Hossain was trapped in front for five runs but Nafis Iqbal joined Imrul Kayes to consolidate their position by sharing 79 runs for the second wicket.

Nafis scored 29 off 59 balls with three fours while national opener Imrul smashed eight boundaries to score team highest 52 off 67 balls.

Ashraful followed up his hundred in the previous game with a quickfire 29-ball 42 that saw six fours before the Bangladesh captain became a run out victim while Nayeem Islam was not out on 31 as Gazi reached 218-6 with 19 balls to spare.

VICTORIA-PEGASUS

Victoria piled up an imposing total of 286-5 after deciding to bat first, thanks to half centuries from Amit Majumder, Faisal Akhter and Sharifullah.

Opener Amit scored highest 70 off 96 balls with five fours and a six while Faisal contributed 51 off 73 balls that featured two fours and a six but it was Sharifullah who put the opposition bowlers to the sword during an unbeaten 37-ball 68 laced with six fours and three sixes.

In reply, Pegasus lost wickets at regular intervals before being bundled out for 232.

The highest 83-run partnership came from Humayun Kabir (64) and Iftekhar Nayeem (45) for the sixth wicket stand.

Raihan Anas was the most successful bowler with three for 45.

BRIEF SCORES

ICC Women's WC starts today

SPORTS REPORTER

Australia have the home advantage and the statistical benefit of being unbeaten in a one-day series' since 2000, as the ICC Women's World Cup starts today Down Under.

Pakistan meet India at the Bradman Oval in Bowral while England play Sri Lanka at the Manuka Oval in Canberra in the opening fixtures of the World Cup.

Eight teams split into two groups are participating in the event with England, Sri Lanka, India and Pakistan in Group A and South Africa, West Indies, New Zealand and hosts Australia in Group B.

A glittering ceremony marked the beginning of the ICC Women's World Cup Cricket, which is being held under the aegis of International Cricket Council this year for the first time, at the iconic Luna Park in Sydney on Thursday.

"It has only been four years since women's cricket came under the ICC's control but its rapid growth since that time can be gauged from the fact that from 15 members playing the sport in 2005, we now have 78 members who are involved in some form of women's and continent.

"Abahani never go into a tournament for being second best. We want the trophy and have also prepared to fulfil our target," announced Abahani manager Satyajit Das Rupa at an official teams briefing at the BFF Bhaban yesterday.

"Our players needed to relax after winning the B. League but we gave them only three days' break before starting training for the Super Cup. We are the best team in the country for the past two years and we want to maintain that status. There would be a lot of money if we win but the honour of winning is the most important thing," said the former national footballer adding that the Sky-blues' initial target is to win the three group matches and make the semifinals.

"We will then concentrate on the knockout rounds and I believe if our players prove their worth, we will be able to win this trophy."

Abahani have a rich record, of winning inaugural versions of many tournaments including the National Football League and the B. League and coach Amalesh Sen felt that the players are raring to go.

"Our preparation is in the final stages and we will treat all opponents similarly. This is a big event and all teams will be hard to beat," said Amalesh, who will have four foreign players boosting his squad.

"(Awudu) Ibrahim has returned and he has brought an attacking midfielder with him. It will strengthen our squad but one thing I can say is that we will field our best eleven in matches. We have competent local players and there is no guarantee that all four foreigners will play."

Amalesh, who opined that money is not above honour, however, mentioned that the big prize money would be a motivation for players.

Rain spoils India party

Cricket

AFP, Wellington

The second one-day cricket international between New Zealand and India was called off here Friday after frequent rain disruptions.

After India won the toss and elected to bat they reached 188 for four in 28.4 overs before rain forced the players from the field for the third time and the umpires declared the match abandoned.

The game had progressively been reduced from 50 to 44, then 33 overs before being called off.

Amid the showers, India were setting the stage for a big innings, cashing in on a typical rapid start by Sachin Tendulkar, who made 61, and Virender Sehwag, who was out for 54.

When the match started -- after the players had observed a minute's silence in memory of those killed and injured in Tuesday's terrorist attack in Pakistan -- Sehwag was circumspect by his standards.

But in the fifth over he belted four boundaries off Kyle Mills and raced to 54 with a minimal amount of running.

Restricted by a left leg injury, which necessitated the use of a runner late in his innings, Sehwag preferred the short route to gather runs and by the time he was controversially dismissed he had pounded nine boundaries and one six.

He was surprisingly sent back to the pavilion by umpire Evan Watkin, who ruled he was caught behind when television replays clearly showed the ball coming off the pads and passing nowhere near the bat.

Tendulkar, who had played sedately while Sehwag was at the crease accelerated after his departure.

He was dropped by Mills off Ian Butler on 22 and then belted the next two balls for six and four as he raced to 61.

But with India well poised at 139 for one by the 22nd over, Tendulkar mistimed a sweep and was trapped in front by Daniel Vettori.

Yuvraj Singh came and went quickly, lasting four balls before he was caught by Ross Taylor off Mills without scoring, before Gautam Gambhir and Mahendra Singh Dhoni reignited the innings.

Gambhir had reached 30 off 36 balls when he fell to Iain O'Brien while trying to lift the pace after the second rain disruption, and when the rain drove the players off the field for the third and final time, Dhoni was unbeaten on 23 with Suresh Raina on 13.

Vettori and Butler were the pick of the New Zealand bowlers, with Vettori claiming one for 14 off three overs, while Butler had one for 38 off seven.

Hughes, Katich shine

Cricket

AFP, Durban

Phil Hughes played a thrilling innings as he and fellow opener Simon Katich hit centuries for Australia on the first day of the second Test against South Africa at Kingsmead on Friday.

Australia were in a strong position at 303 for four at the close although South Africa fought back after a pummelling during the first three hours of play.

Hughes (115) and Katich (108) put on 184 for the first wicket, scoring at better than four runs an over, in a partnership dominated by Hughes, who thrashed 19 fours and two sixes in a 151-ball innings. Fellow left-hander Katich was more sedate in making his runs off 190 deliveries with 16 fours.

Hughes, 20, reached his century with two successive sixes off left-arm spinner Paul Harris to become Australia's youngest Test century maker since Doug Walters, who was eight days short of his 20th birthday when he made 155 against England in Brisbane in 1965/66.

South Africa claimed to have made plans to counter Hughes after his second innings 75 in the first Test last weekend - he made a duck in the first innings - but the little left-hander unleashed a dazzling array of strokes against some wayward bowling.

South Africa, seeking to draw level in the three-match series, started the match badly. They bowled poorly on a good batting pitch, dropped two catches and used up both their referrals to the television umpire.

The hosts made a comeback later in the day before Mike Hussey, who successfully challenged a leg before wicket decision against him, and Marcus North put on an unbeaten 37 before the close, surviving the second new ball late in the day.

Katich was dropped on 55 by Hashim Amla at midwicket off Dale Steyn, while Hughes was put down by a diving Jacques Kallis at slip off Morne Morkel when he had 114. He added only one more before slashing Kallis to gully where Neil McKenzie held a sharp chance.

South Africa wasted their first referral when Harris appealed for leg before wicket against Hughes when the batsman was on 81. Not only did television umpire Steve Bucknor uphold Asad Rauf's decision but he awarded Hughes a run because the ball had gone off a bottom edge. Rauf had signaled a leg bye.

The South Africans seemed convinced
