Beaconhouse Observes International Mother Language Day

STUDENTS of Beaconhouse School System observed the International Mother Language Day in their school campus in Banani. Beaconhouse School System is an international educational franchise following an UK based curriculum, believes in pursuing unorthodox way of teaching and learning through research. Students with the help of their teachers decorated the school with their artwork on the related subject of the day. The foreign students also presented their language by singing their national anthem. Students were encouraged to do research and present write ups on their respective mother tongue.

A Day of Festivity in BGCTUB

CELL (Circle of English Language and Literature) a student forum of the Department of English of BGC Trust University Bangladesh (BGCTUB), organized Freshers' Reception and a colourful cultural program on February 19, 2009. The program was presided over by Prof. Kamal C. Nandy, Chairman of the Dept. of English of the university. The Chief Guest was Prof. Dr. Moniruzzaman, eminent linguistics scholar & writer, ex-Din of the Faculty of Arts and ex-Chairman of the Department of Bangla, Chittagong University. The special guest of the programme was Prof. Dr. Md. Nurul Mostafa, Vice-Chancellor, BGCTUB. Prof. Ranajit Kumar Dhar, Treasurer, Prof. Farid Ahmad, Registrar and Khaled-Bin-Chowdhury, Lecturer, Dept. of English, BGCTUB also addressed the gathering. Suman Prasad Sharma, Vice-President of CELL and Nazrul Haq spoke on the occasion on behalf of the Freshers. The guests greeted with enthusiasm the publication of the first ever souvenir VISTA that marked the 1st Founding Anniversary of CELL. A cultural programme comprising of songs, dance and a drama was also organized.

Drama Workshop held at BAU

THE Natya Sangha of the Students Affairs Division of the Bangladesh Agricultural University held a drama workshop recently. Vice-Chancellor Professor Dr. M. A. Sattar Mandal formally distributed certificates as chief guest among the participants of the drama workshop.

NSU Annual Picnic 2009

NSUSS, The Social Services Club of North South University organized the NSU annual picnic 2009 on 12th February, 2009 at the plush green grounds of Nahar Garden at Manikganj. About 700 students and faculty members spent their day roaming around the green countryside. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Hafiz G.A. Siddiqi and Pro Vice-Chancellor Dr. S.A.M. Khairul Bashar were there to encourage students. Students Clubs Coordinator Dr. M. Ali Rashid and NSUSSC Faculty Advisor Dr. Khairul Azam were also present. The day was full of fun activities like a football tournament for boys and a pillow-passing game for girls. There was also an exciting round of Raffle Draw where the bumper prize was a Dhaka-Dubai-Dhaka plane ticket offered by Emirates Airways. Other prizes included a "dinner for two" at Baton Rouge and Radhuni, gift vouchers from Reebok and a Samsung mobile phone. The soft drink partner for this event was Partex Beverage. Nestle BD Ltd provided free coffee. The much-awaited event ended with a concert where Shunno and Eclipse performed.