About 100 children from different educational institutes took part in the art competition.

QUAMRUL ISLAM RUBAIYAT, Thakurgaon

A painting competition for children was held yesterday to mark the 89th birth anniversary of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and National Children's Day at Thakurgaon Station Club.

Thakurgaon Shishu Academy organised the event for school-going children.

About 100 children from different educational institutes took part in three groups at the competition titled "Unmukta Gram Banglar Drishsho." Judges selected nine children for awards.

A handwriting competition was also held at the venue. Three children were selected for prizes.

Later a debate on "Political Life of Bangabandhu" (Bangabandhur Rajnoitic Jiban). A total of 35 children took part in the debate competition.

On the occasion of Bangabandhu's birthday and National Children's Day, the local Shishu Academy has arranged a two-day programme including rally, cultural function and discussion.

Classical music workshop in Gaibandha

KONGKON KARMAKER, Dinajpur

Chintak Association for Cultural Advancement, of Gobindaganj upazila of Gaibandha, recently gave certificates to the participants of a classical music workshop that began last week. Lawmakers of the district were also accorded a reception at the programme.

The programme was held at the BD auditorium of Gobindaganj. Engineer Monwar Hossain Chowdhury, parliamentary member of Gaibandha-4 attended the programme as chief guest, while Mohammad Abul Kalam Azad, upazila chairman of Gobindaganj, was present as special guest.

Babulal Chowdhury, chairman of Chintak, presided over the meeting. The discussants laid emphasis on the need for more such workshops in the area so as to give a boost to latent talent.

The programme started with lighting candles, accompanied by a chorus of the artists of Chintak. The programme wrapped up with a colourful cultural programme where participants of the workshop and artistes of Chintak performed.

Artistes of Tripura community perform traditional dance on the last day (March 13) of a weeklong cultural festival. The festival was held in Kotbari, Comilla. Apart from cultural programme, the festival included different events including traditional games.

MacGyver being reassembled as feature film

"MacGyver" became a reference for anyone attempting to jury-rig a solution out of household items.

It will take more than twine, bubble gum and a pencil to do it, but the science-oriented adventure series "MacGyver" is being developed as a feature film for New Line.

"MacGyver" ran from 1985 to 1992 on ABC. Richard Dean Anderson, later of "Stargate: Atlantis" and "SG-1" fame, starred as an incredibly resourceful secret agent for the Phoenix Foundation who frequently would escape from dangerous situations with ingenious and lightning-quick engineering trickery.

Two telefilms starring Anderson aired in the years after the show's cancellation. The character eventually achieved enough cultural recognition to become a reference for anyone attempting to jury-rig a solution out of household items.

No writer has been hired yet. The studio hopes to find a script that acknowledges the concept's pop-culture profile yet still makes for a serious and fun adventure movie.

"We think we're a stick of chewing gum, a paper clip and an A-list writer away from a global franchise," said New Line's Richard Brenner.
