In all cases, you'll need an internationally recognised postgraduate degree or equivalent – and excellent written and spoken English. You must also be a strong communicator, a forward thinker, and a sound decision maker – and you should bring a significant background as a successful development professional, with specific Bangladesh expertise and international exposure.

In return, you'll find an attractive and competitive local salary and benefits – including relocation if you don't currently live in Bangladesh. We're an equal opportunities employer – and actively encourage applications from women, ethnic minority groups and those with a disability. Selection is on merit, although you'll need to hold Bangladeshi citizenship or have a Bangladesh work permit – and we particularly encourage applications from Bangladeshi citizens living abroad.
