

Cooperation deal with Indonesia signed to fight terrorist financing

UNB, Dhaka

Bangladesh and Indonesia have agreed to cooperate with each other in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing.

Quoting a top Indonesian official, Jakarta Post yesterday said Deputy Head of

Indonesia's Financial Transaction Reports Analysis Center (PPATK) Wahyu Hidayat said the cooperation agreement was signed on Monday between PPATK Head Yunus Husein of Indonesia and Md Abdul Quasem, executive director and head of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Bangladesh's central bank's anti-money laundering department.

Hidayat said the two countries would exchange financial intelligence information in an effort to reinforce international cooperation in fighting money laundering and financing of terrorism.

Both countries have agreed that the exchanged information would be treated as highly confidential, Hidayat added.

Indonesia has made similar agreements with 28 other foreign partners.
