The World of Poetry

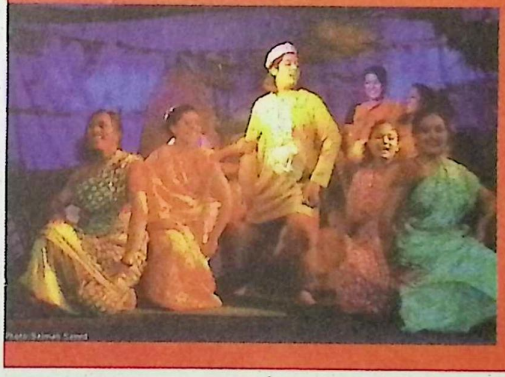

6-13

Plato wanted to banish poets from his ideal state. The fault with them was their exuberance of emotion. The poets are alleged to be impractical. They tend to judge everything with emotion rather then reason and it might be a symptom of insanity, which makes them social misfits. Therefore the ancient Greek philosopher took an avowed stance against them.

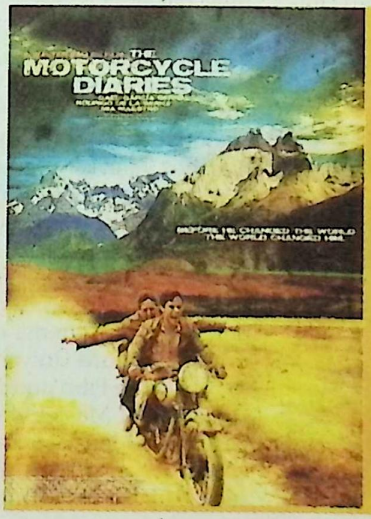

IUB Drama Club Production on Climate Change

22

Independent University Bangladesh (IUB) held their 6th Drama Club Production on Monday, March 9th at its new campus in Bashundhara. The play was titled 'Tropical Paradise', translating 'Grissho Mondolio Shorgo'. It addressed the issue of global climate change through our social context.

The Motorcycle Diaries

30

If you are not aware of the history behind The Motorcycle Diaries, its initial plotline may come off as a more artsy variation of the Eurotrip/Road Trip series. It's a story of the 23-year old Ernesto and his friend Granado who decides who travel South America in a old, beaten-up motorcycle that leaks oil. Their destination is to cover 8000 miles and their sole mode of survival is improvisation.
