Young photographers display their craft

Intra NSU Photography Competition and Exhibition '09

SYED TASHFIN CHOWDHURY

The five-day Intra North South University Photography Competition and Exhibition 2009, held recently at the GMQ Tower of North South University (NSU) in Banani, managed to impress seasoned and amateur photographers, and enthusiasts alike. The exhibition, organised annually by North South University Photography Club (NSUPC), has been a platform for many aspiring photographers over the years.

This year, the opening and award-giving ceremony was inaugurated by Dr. S.A.M. Khairul Bashar, Pro Vice Chancellor of NSU, along with Hasan Shafiuddin Chandan, a renowned photographer and Shahriar Iqbal Raj, a faculty advisor on March 29.

categories -- People and Faces, Landscape and Architecture -- took part in the competition. Around 51 photographs were on display, vying for eight awards. Shafiqul Alam Kiron and Hasan Saifuddin Chandan were the judges.

The photographs on display seem to have captured the unique and differing aspects of the three categories, combining innovative visions incorporated with apt use of the lens.

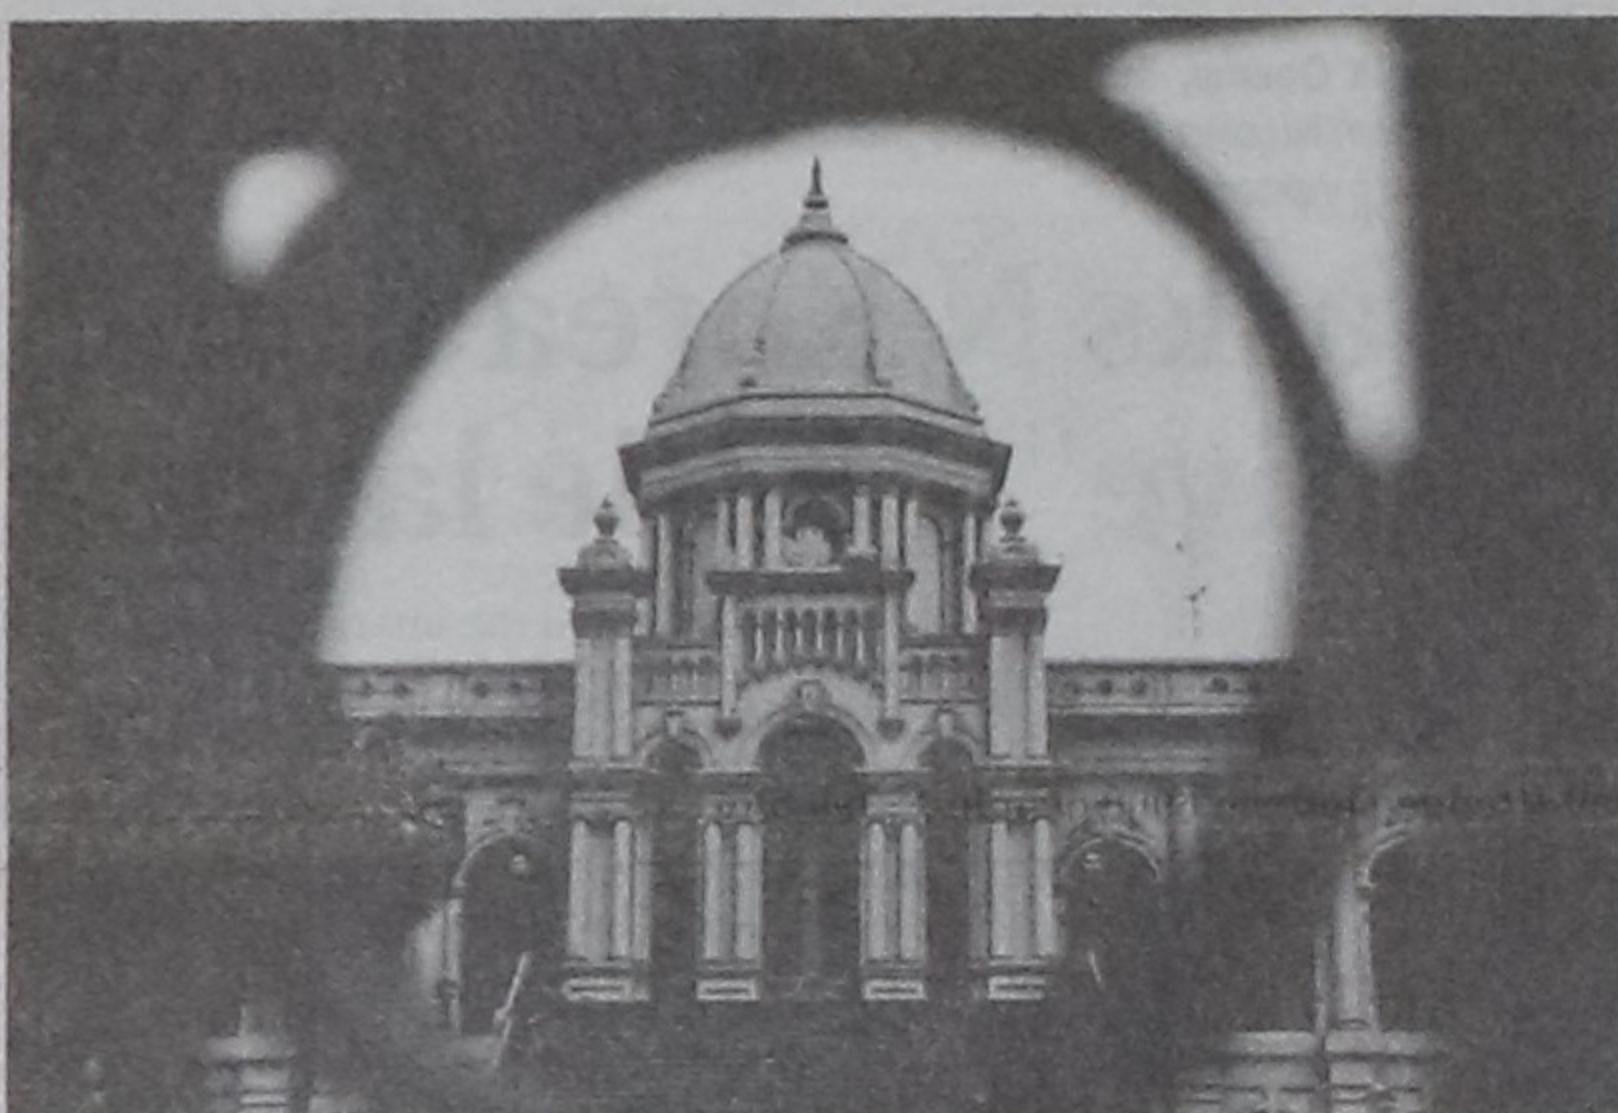

Mirza Rajan Ferdous won both the 1st and 2nd positions in the People and faces category. Ashique Uz Zaman won the 1st position in Landscape category, followed by Ruhatul Islam in second position. Ashmeed Hossain won both the first and second positions in the Architecture category. The jury also conferred awards to Hemonto Kumar Mondol and Golam Sarwer Chowdhury.

NSUPC started its journey in 1998, with only three individuals who shared the same passion for photography. Currently, the club has a five member executive body who work under a faculty advisor. The club organises photography competitions at both national and international levels, and encourages amateur photo enthusiasts to participate, facilitating them to improve their knowledge in the medium.

The exhibition ended on April 2.

Students and teachers of 'Kanan,' an educational institute operated by Bangladesh Autism Welfare Foundation, perform at a programme on April 2 at Shakwat Osman Memorial Auditorium, Central Public Library. The event marked World Autism Awareness Day and the fifth anniversary of Bangladesh Autism Welfare Foundation.

Weeklong theatre festival in Bogra begins today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

The weeklong 'Singer Inter District Theatre Festival 2009' begins today at Muktiyoddha Aminul Haque Dulal Auditorium in Bogra town.

Bogra Theatre has arranged the festival in association with Singer Bangladesh Ltd and some other cultural organisations.

Secretary General of Bogra Theatre, Taufiq Hasan Moyna, said yesterday that several theatre troupes from different districts including Dhaka are participating in the weeklong programme.

Humayun Kabir, Deputy Commissioner (DC) of Bogra, is set to inaugurate the festival today. Mahbub Jamil, chairman, Singer Bangladesh Ltd, will join the inaugural function as chief guest.

Nasiruddin Yousuff (chairman of Gram Theatre), singer Nahar Jamil and Professor Afsar Ahmed, among others, will attend the inaugural programme.
