PUST observed day long 'Baishakhi' program

Ahmed Humayun Kabir Topu

PABNA University of Science and Technology (PUST) has celebrated the Pahela Baishakh in Pabna amidst colourful festivity. A rally was brought out on the occasion, followed by blood donation, tree plantation and cultural program on the university. Meanwhile PUST had organized Baishakhi program with the participation of disabled people.

The University authority had organised a Panta-Ilish program in the campus where the disabled people also participated. Lawmaker of Pabna-4 constituency Md. Samsur Rahman Sarif Dilu was present in Pantha-Ilish program in the university campus.

Later the blood donation program was held in the university campus. The students of the university donated blood in the program. The lawmaker of Pabna-5 constituency Golam Faruk Khandakar Prince was present in this blood donation program and also the cultural program.

Later the students of the university performed in a cultural function. Also a friendship cricket match and a tree plantation program were held marking the occasion. University students and teachers planted over hundred trees on the Dhaka-Pabna highway.

Seminar held at ASAUB

THE Department of Law of ASA University Bangladesh arranged a Seminar on 'Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage in Bangladesh: From Legal and Religious Perspective' at ASA University auditorium. Justice Salma Masud Chowdhury, High Court Division, Supreme Court of Bangladesh was present at the ceremony as the Cheif Guest. Prof. Tareq M.R. Chowdhury, Dean, Faculty of Arts, Social Science and Law, presided over the ceremony while Prof. Md. Muinuddin Khan, Vice-Chancellor of the university was present as the chief discussant. Prof. M. Saiful Islam, Registrar, ASA University Bangladesh, Md. Alamgir Mohiuddin, Editor, The Daily Naya Diganta, Prof. Maimul Ahsan Khan, Former Chairman, Department of Law, University of Dhaka, were also present as special discussants.

The Chief guest addressed the auidence while mentioning various provisions of different laws prevailing in Bangladesh on marriage and dissolution of marriage. She highlighted the exigencies of new laws on Hindu Marriage and divorce.

Prof. Khan addressed the pros and cons of marriage and dissolution of marriage. The Chair of the seminar Prof. Tareq M.R. Chowdhury empahsized on the empowerment of women and thanked the key note speakers and the respective authors for their contribution in the legal arena.

Prize Distribution of Ideal Kallso Academy Held

THE annual prize distribution ceremony of Ideal Kallso Academy was held recently. The program was presided over by Moklusher Rahman ,one of the founders of the school while the Chief Guest at the occasion was Prof. Muhammad Mahboob Ali, Chairman, School of Business and Economics, Atish Dipankar University of Science and Technology. In the ceremony the "Late Professor and eminent Intellectual Mobasher Ali student award-2008" was given to Sadia Rahman Sriti. Among others Dr. Ruhul Amin, Salimullah Munshi, Nihar Ranjan Sutar, Sujit Kumar Das were present. The program was ended with a colourful cultural program.