

BUET holds Orientation Programme

THE orientation programme of the freshmen undergraduate students of the 2008-09 (Level-1, Term-1) session of the Bangladesh University of Engineering & Technology (BUET) was successfully conducted in the BUET auditorium. The event was addressed by Prof. Dr. A.M.M. Safiullah, Vice-Chancellor of BUET. On this ice-breaking occasion for the new-comers to BUET, he briefly illuminated the history and past achievements of BUET. He strongly maintained that engineering is a creative profession. He congratulated all the pristine faces for surpassing the hurdle of the rigorous admission exam and finally making a place in one of the most prestigious institution of Bangladesh. Moreover, he asked the assistance of all the students present to help alleviate the one problem that is tarnishing the image of BUET in recent years: session-jam. The deans of the five respective faculties also presented their speeches in the function.
