Kumble still not giving up hope

His side is placed at a precarious fifth spot at the midway stage of the on-going IPL, but Royal Challengers Bangalore captain Anil Kumble is not one to throw in the towel and feels his team has formidable chances of making the semi-finals of the Twenty20 event.

After three consecutive victories, the Vijay Mallya-owned team got a setback yesterday when defending champions Rajasthan Royals humiliated them by seven

Dada last into semis

SHAHIDUL ISLAM, Chittagong

Zunaed Siddiqui got back to form in the right time to take Dada Warriors to the semifinal of Habib Group PCL Twenty20 tournament at the MA Aziz Stadium here yesterday.

Riding on the left-handed opener's fine half-century and the best opening partnership of the tournament, Dada, who made 158-7 in 20 overs, beat Pirates of Chittagong by 10 runs in the last of the league matches, finishing as group runners-up.

They will now face group A champion Brothers Union in the first semifinal today at 10.30am while Group B champions Dhaka Sports will take on Chittagong Abahani in the second semifinal to be played at 2.30pm. Private satellite channel ATN Bangla will telecast the matches live.

Winning the toss, Dada openers Zunaed and Saeed Anwar Jr laid the foundation of the innings in style, adding 108 before being separated in the 14th over. Despite a brief hiccup that followed after Zunaed's departure, Dada managed to get past the 150-mark.

Zunaed hit three huge sixes and five sweetly-timed boundaries during his 56-minute stay at the crease to score 61 off 39 deliveries. Anwar also played well, giving good support to Zunaed and picking runs regularly to score 44 off 46 balls.

Arafat Sunny remained not out 20 off 13 balls.

In reply the Pirates were bowled out 148 in the final over. Although they started the chase promisingly with three boundaries in the very first over, they lost their way due to some reckless batting and wrong choice of shots from the first over. Openers Gazi Salahuddin smashed two boundaries from first three balls and got out the next ball for 8 runs.

Pirates' Pakistani buy Waqqas Ahmed hit the third boundary of the first over but fell soon after for six. Pirates thus lost first three batsmen cheaply by the third over.

Sharifullah's departure after the right-hander made 13 runs off 11 balls in the fifth over made the situation even more pitiable for them.

Tigers batsman Nayeem Islam held the innings together with a well-made half-century off 51 balls that had four boundaries and a six. The right-hander stayed till the end but due to poor batting from the others, he never could finish the job for his side.

Requiring 16 runs off the last over, Pirates could only manage five runs from first two balls but lost Biswanath Haldar in the third and Nayeem in the last ball of the day, finishing the innings at 148. Nayeem had a good day in the early part of the match too when he took two wickets conceding 25 runs.

But it was the century partnership between Zunaed and Dada's Pakistani recruit Anwar that sealed the fate of match.

"I am personally also delighted to have runs finally at a crucial time. I was looking forward to this sort of innings and I'm happy my contribution with the bat had helped my team to reach the semifinal," said an ecstatic Zunaed, after receiving the man-of-the-match prize.

SCORES IN BRIEF

DADA WARRIORS: 158 for 7 in 20 overs (Anwar 44, Zunaed 61, Naveed 1, Faisal 2, Imran 1, Sunny 20*, Pankaj 12, Sajjad 8; Nayeem 2-25, Sharif 2-32, Shuvo 1-28).

PIRATES OF CHITTAGONG: 148 all out in 20 overs (Salahuddin 8, Waqqas 6, Sirajullah 4, Nayeem 52, Sharif 13, Shuvo 17, Noman 1, Tariq 22, Pallab 2, Biswanath 10; Rubel 1-40, Anwar 2-34, Naveed 3-16, Sunny 2-24).

Result: Dada Warriors won by 10 runs.

Man-of-the-match: Zunaed Siddiqui.

Eng thrash Windies

Brendan Nash's 81 couldn't prevent England beating the West Indies by 10 wickets to win the first Test at Lord's here on Friday with more than two days to spare.

Nash, together with Denesh Ramdin (61), did help prevent an innings defeat. The duo put on 143 for the sixth wicket - the only century partnership of the match - after the West Indies had been made to follow-on.

But by the time Nash was last man out, in a total of 256, England needed just 32 to win and so go 1-0 up in the series ahead of next week's second and final Test at Durham's Riverside ground.

England captain Andrew Strauss (14 not out), who ended the match with a boundary, and fellow left-handed opener Alastair Cook (also 14 not out) knocked the runs off in 41 balls in what was the first Test win by any side at Lord's after a run of six successive draws.

This match was a triumph for several players.

New England No 3 Ravi Bopara made a Test-best 143 on his home debut with tail-ender Graeme Swann, who later sparked West Indies' first innings collapse, weighing in with his best score at this level of 63 not out in what was also the off-spinner's first Test on home soil.

After Swann had made the early inroads, debutant fast bowler Graham Onions took five for 38, including three wickets in an over, as the West Indies were bowled out for just 152 in reply to England's first innings 377.

At tea the West Indies were 225 for six. That meant the scores were level and England would have to bat again.

Nash was 67 not out after wicket-keeper Ramdin had been bowled by Stuart Broad shortly before the break.

But West Indies who'd lost wickets in clusters throughout the match, saw their next three batsmen depart in the space of 19 balls.

Ramdin should have been out for 46 when Onions dropped a one-handed caught and bowled chance.

It was a dose of reality for the

'Unforgettable day'

Cricket

England quick Graham Onions said his five-wicket haul on his Test debut against the West Indies in the series opener here at Lord's was a reward for the hard work he'd put in during the off-season.

The 26-year-old Durham paceman enjoyed a dramatic start to his international career here on Thursday when, after being dismissed for a duck, he took five wickets for 38 runs in 9.3 overs as West Indies were made to follow-on.

At stumps on the second day the tourists were 39 for two in their second innings, still 186 runs behind, after Onions - whose first four wickets came in just seven balls - had helped dismiss them for 152 in reply to England's first innings 377.

"It's been a day I'll never forget. It's a cliché but it is a dream come true," said Onions, who took three wickets in his sixth over to dismiss Lendl Simmons, Jerome Taylor and Sulieman Benn.

Onions said of being left out of county champions Durham's title-clinching match away to Kent last season had spurred him into action.

"I've been through a lot of ups and downs. It hurt me when I didn't travel down to Kent when Durham won the Championship. I could have taken it one of two ways. I spent a lot of time in the gym and I felt fit and strong."

Onions wasn't alone in having a day to remember. Ravi Bopara extended his Test-best score to 143 and Graeme Swann starred with both bat and ball.

The off-spinner made a Test-best 63 that belied his position as a No 9 and then sparked the West Indies' collapse with two wickets in two balls, including the prize scalp of Shivnarine Chanderpaul for a golden duck.

"There are a lot of people in the changing rooms who need a pat on the back as well," Onions added.

"Graeme Swann set the tone with bat, Ravi Bopara getting 100 plus, the foundations are there. Graeme chipped in with a few wickets and it was a day when the team shone through," Onions insisted.

Injured England all-rounder Andrew Flintoff was on hand to watch Onions's performance.

"Just before I was going to bat he came over, shook my hand and said 'congratulations'. That worked. Cheers Fred!" joked Onions.

"But I really do feel part of this team and I'm sure I've got a lot to offer."

West Indies coach John Dyson admitted his side faced a massive task if they were not to go

Ctg MSC clears air

SPORTS REPORTER

Chittagong Mohammedan Sporting Club (MSC) has clarified their payment dispute over their three Guinean players calling the claims of the players untrue.

In an official press release, team manager of Chittagong MSC, Mohammad Yousuf explained that the players' claims against the club are wrong and they were promised return tickets only if the club reached the Super Cup finals.

"Camara Saifullah, Raphael Sagno and Musa Camara have given wrong statements to newspapers. We have cleared their payments during the season and we promised return tickets to them only if we reached the Super Cup final. Hence they are claiming something that they have not been promised," said Yousuf.

The Guinean trio has earlier submitted a letter to the Bangladesh Football Federation (BFF) this week complaining about payment issues which have prevented them from returning to Guinea.

Aussie trio out of IPL

AFP, Dubai

Australian all-rounder Shane Watson's hopes of playing in the ongoing second edition of the lucrative Indian Premier League were dashed here on Thursday after he suffered a groin injury, officials said.

"Watson suffered a groin injury so he will be returning home for rest before the World Twenty20 and is not going to South Africa for the Indian league," said Australian team spokesman Lachy Patterson.

The 27-year-old Watson was last year named player of the Indian Premier League (IPL) due to his performances with bat and ball that helped fire Rajasthan Royals to the inaugural 2008 title.

Watson suffered the injury during his 14-ball knock of 33 in Australia's innings of 108 in the one-off Twenty20 international against Pakistan here on Thursday.

All-rounder James Hopes and paceman Nathan Bracken will also not be going to play in the IPL as they had suffered minor knee problems, said the spokesman.

That leaves all-rounders Andrew Symonds and David Hussey, and paceman Brett Lee as the only Australian players who will fly to South Africa to play in the IPL.

Hammam retains FIFA seat

Football

AFP, Kuala Lumpur

Asian Football Confederation president Mohamed bin Hammam narrowly retained his FIFA executive committee seat Friday after one of the most vitriolic battles regional football has known.

The 60-year-old Qatari, seen as a potential future FIFA president, survived a challenge from Bahrain's Sheikh Salman bin Ibrahim Al Khalifa by winning a tense vote at the AFC congress here 23 to 21. Two ballots were spoiled.

It was the culmination of a bitter fight for power in which Bin Hammam, who has held the FIFA position since 1996, had threatened to step down as Asia's most powerful football figure if he was defeated.

After winning he urged all sides to come together and work for the future.

"Both sides have to come together and heal and look to the future of Asian football," he said.

"To those who supported me, I promise I am going to do more than what I have done in the past. To those who didn't support me, I will do my best to win back your confidence and trust.

"Asia needs all of us to work hand in hand together."

Delhi Daredevils roared back to the top of the IPL with an overwhelming win over Mumbai Indians. Mumbai opted to bat first in East London but patently failed to take advantage of some decent conditions as they were bowled out for 116.

Delhi are still without the injured Virender Sehwag, but the target proved well within their range as AB De Villiers guided them home with an unbeaten half-century.

Mumbai Indians' Dwayne Bravo (R) lofts one over extra-cover while top scoring with 35 in their IPL match against the Delhi Daredevils at East London on Friday.

Mumbai opted to drop Sanath Jayasuriya in favour of Luke Ronchi, but the move backfired spectacularly as the Australian ran himself out in the first over.

JP Duminy has been a form player for Mumbai but he had no answer to a super ball from Dirk Nannes. The Australian firebrand got the ball to jag away and he feathered the ball behind to Dinesh Karthik.

It went from bad to worse for Mumbai in the sixth over as Sachin Tendulkar ran himself out in bizarre circumstances. The little master almost dragged the ball onto his stumps and seemingly unaware of where the ball had gone, set off for a single. The ball was in the hands of the keeper and he threw down the stumps with Tendulkar stranded.

Abishek Nayar and Dwayne Bravo set about rebuilding the innings and the latter played some good shots in his 35, but he fell when trying to accelerate and the innings fell apart following his departure.
