Raja Ram Mohan Roy's birth anniversary observed in Sylhet

IQBAL SIDDIQUEE, Sylhet

Srihatta Brahmo Samaj held a discussion and cultural programme recently in observance of the 237th birth anniversary of the great social reformer Raja Ram Mohan Roy.

Advocate Pankaj Kumar Roy, president of the Brahmo Samaj, chaired the discussion on "Pioneer of Bengali Renaissance -- Raja Rammohan Roy." Among others, Advocate Asit Bhattacharya, Bithika Dutta, poet Tushar Kar and Sylhet Bibek's joint secretary Bijay Krishna Biswas spoke on the occasion.

Focussing on different aspects of the illustrious life of Raja Ram Mohan Roy, the speakers said that Roy launched a vigorous social movement to free the masses from ignorance and injustice during the British Raj. He initiated the movement through Brahmo Samaj and heralded the age known as the 'Bengali Renaissance,' the speakers conveyed. Among his many accomplishments were generating social awareness against and initiating the ban of the inhuman tradition of "Satidaha" (immolation of Hindu widows).

At the cultural programme, songs were rendered by Rana Kumar Sinha, Sumona Aziz, Kanta Bhattacharya, Mahamaya Sharma, Banhishikha Roy Brishu, Partho Sarothi Roy and Srijoni Roy.

Third Int'l Inter University Short Film Festival ends

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

The '3rd International Inter University Short Film Festival' ended on May 26 at the Goethe-Institut Auditorium, Dhanmondi. Organised by Dhaka University Film Society (DUFFS), the festival featured short and independent films made by students from across the globe. This year the two-day festival, arranged in association with Goethe-Institut Bangladesh, featured films from several countries including Bangladesh, Germany, Mexico, Kazakhstan, Georgia and Azerbaijan.

The inaugural ceremony of the festival was held on May 25 at the Goethe-Institut auditorium. Filmmaker Enamul Karim Nirjhar was present as chief guest, while Angela Grunert, director of the Institut attended the event as special guest. Shami Suhrid, president of DUFFS, presided over the inaugural session.

Fourteen Bangladeshi universities and colleges including Dhaka University, Jahangirnagar University, Khulna University, North South University, Stamford University, ULAB, UODA, Bangladesh College of Leather Technology, Dhaka Medical College and Tejgaon College took part in the festival with 28 films.

The closing and award giving ceremony on the following day had renowned artist Qayyum Chowdhury as the chief guest. The festival had different segments including Competition, Panorama, Surprise and Independent Filmmaker. The Competition segment, which was included for the first time this year, featured films made by only Bangladeshi students. Qayyum Chowdhury handed over 'Zahir Raihan Best Shot' award to the three winners.

Yasmin Kabir's documentaries "Swadhinata" and "Parobashi Mon Aamar" were screened at the Independent Filmmaker segment.
