

Asian markets finish up

AFP, Hong Kong

Asian markets jumped on Monday as dealers welcomed a rally on Wall Street, General Motors' imminent bankruptcy filing and positive data pointing to a strengthening of the global economy.

TOKYO: Up 1.63 percent. The Nikkei-225 rose 155.25 points to 9,677.75.

The market is at its highest since hitting 10,155.9 on October 7.

HONG KONG: Up four percent. The Hang Seng Index rose 717.59 points to 18,888.59, the highest close since September 25.

Analysts said they expect the index to continue its bull run in the near term as the market is supported by ample liquidity.

SYDNEY: Up two percent. The S&P/ASX 200 rose 76.3 points to 3,894.4.

Mining stocks led the market on the back of rising commodity prices, dealers said. The bourse was buoyed by signs of recovery in China, the key market for Australia's commodities exports, dealers said.

SHANGHAI: Up 3.36 percent. The Shanghai Composite Index, which covers A and B shares, was up 88.35 points to close at a near 10-month high of 7,272.28.

PetroChina ended 4.9 percent higher at 14.17 yuan, while Sinopec added 1.1 percent to 10.49.

TAIPEI: Up 0.92 percent. The weighted index rose 63.66 points to 6,954.10.

Profit-taking eroded gains made earlier in the day on the back of the Wall Street rally, dealers said.

SEOUL: Up 1.38 percent. The KOSPI gained 19.21 points to 1,415.1.

"If the US markets show resilience against the planned bankruptcy filing by General Motors, the local stock market will also likely show a somewhat firm performance," Lee Yun-Hak, of Woori Investment and Securities, said.

SINGAPORE: Up 2.19 percent. The blue-chip Straits Times Index (STI) closed 50.99 points stronger at 2,380.07.

KUALA LUMPUR: Up 1.67 percent. The Kuala Lumpur Composite Index added 17.69 points to 1,061.80.

BANGKOK: Up 3.49 percent. The Stock Exchange of Thailand index gained 19.57 points to close at 579.98.

The market was helped by speculative buying of energy plays, dealers said.

JAKARTA: Up 4.26 percent. The Jakarta Composite Index rose 81.74 points to 1,998.58.

MANILA: Up 2.9 percent. The composite index added 69.34 points to close at 2,458.65.

Megaworld Corp rose 13.7 percent to 1.08 pesos while PLDT gained 0.7 percent to 2,225 pesos.

Ayala Corp gained 6.1 percent to 14,840.63.

MUMBAI: Up 1.47 percent. The 30-share Sensex rose 215.38 points to 14,840.63.

Abu Nasser Muhammad Abdus Zaher, chairman of Islami Bank Bangladesh Ltd, inaugurates the bank's Kotchandpur branch in Jhenaidah on Sunday.
