The University of Manchester
Equity and Merit Scholarships for Distance Learning 2009/10
 The University of Manchester is pleased to invite applications for up to 2 scholarships for postgraduate study of Public Health, through an online distance learning course. The course starts in September 2009.
 The University of Manchester is the UK's largest and most popular University and has a worldwide reputation for research, teaching and innovation. The Master of Public Health (MPH) is only available through distance learning, so students can continue to work as health care specialists while studying. Most students study part-time and finish within 3 - 5 years, although others take a career break and study full-time.
 Full details of the course can be found at:
<http://www.medicine.manchester.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/mph/>
 Scholarships will cover tuition fees and required text books.
Who is eligible to apply?
 The scholarships are intended to support citizens of Bangladesh who would not otherwise be able to study for a UK qualification. Applicants should:
 • Be a citizen of Bangladesh and have not previously studied abroad or undertaken a UK distance learning course.
 • Have at least 2 years work experience in the health care sector in Bangladesh.
 • Have a clear idea how studying the MPH will benefit Bangladesh.
 • Hold a first or 2.1 undergraduate degree classification.
 • Have regular access to a PC and the internet, as well as experience using word processing packages and a valid and regularly used e-mail address.
 • Be under 45 years of age at the time of application.
How to apply
 Application forms can be downloaded from:
<http://www.medicine.manchester.ac.uk/postgraduate/taught/mph/applying/>
 Applications should be emailed to: mph.admissions@manchester.ac.uk
The closing date is 3 July 2009.
