

breathtaking landscapes, the exhibition was that of versatility, skills and most importantly, a product of energetic team spirit. However, going past the exhibition, one cannot help but be impressed by the activities of the club over the years. Beginning from 1997 BUET-PS arranged 6 successful photo exhibitions with active participation of the students from the institute. Photographic workshops and tours are regular treats, in tandem to a 2-day long workshop conducted by prominent photographers in the country in 2008. From scooping prizes at the International Inter University Photography Exhibition (IIUPE) organized by North South Photography Club (NSUPC) to being showcased at nationwide expositions, the members of BUET-PS have always been a pride to the institute. BUET-PS members were also selected as winners in a nationwide photography contest last year organized jointly by Standard Chartered Bank and The Daily Star, and have gone as far as being commended at international competitions.

However, going past the exhibition, one cannot help but be impressed by the activities of the club over the years. Beginning from 1997 BUET-PS arranged 6 successful photo exhibitions with active participation of the students from the institute.

The 7th Annual Photography Exhibition 2009 held by BUET-PS was just that a celebration of its achievements, recognition for its students and acknowledgement by its viewers of the more artistic, imaginative lot amongst the apparent gadget-and-gizmo wizards. Walking through the gallery, one knows of the immense potential that lies behind these photographers, and it is a true pleasure to witness their creations. For those who are still trying to add the numbers together, be sure to drop by at their next exhibition. You'll know then for sure yours truly was not exaggerating one bit!

