CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Sangstha (BRSSS), an organisation of Tagore singers, arranged a musical programme at the auditorium of National Music and Dance Centre, Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy on June 5. The programme marked the 110th birth anniversary of our National Poet Kazi

Nazrul Islam. BRSSS also celebrated its 21st anniversary (May 27) through the programme. The soiree featured solo renditions of Nazrul Sangeet, recitation of Nazrul's poetry and reminiscence by members of the organisation. Tagore singer and general secretary of BRSSS Tapan Mahmud informed that on the birth centenary of the 'Rebel Poet,' the organisation arranged similar programme on a grander scale. He hoped that in future the organisation would continue to arrange programmes on different occasions featuring Nazrul's works. "Tagore singers revere both Rabindranath and Nazrul," said Mahmud.

The programme began with an informal discussion, reminiscence and exchange of views where, among others, Anup

Arabic and Indian music at Chittagong Club

NUR UDDIN ALAMGIR, Chittagong

Popular Indian singer and host of the widely watched talent hunt "Sa-Re-Ga-Ma-Pa," Aditya Narayan and Arab artiste Asma Mohammed Rafi enthralled hundreds of music lovers in Chittagong with their melodious numbers last Thursday.

Chittagong Club organised the programme, titled "Mega Musical Nite," at the club's tennis court.

The torrential rain could not seemingly dampen the mood and enthusiasm of the fans; the turnout was impressive, mostly comprising youngsters.

Though the programme was scheduled to begin at 8pm, the organisers delayed it till 9:15pm, so that no one would miss any part of the show.

Every nook and corner of the tennis court was brimming with music enthusiasts who were singing along with the artistes.

The show started with a performance by Asma's father, noted Omani singer Mohammed Rafi, who arrived in Chittagong with his daughter to attend the show.

Asma Mohammed Rafi presented a performance featuring remixes of Arabic and Hindi songs. In total, she sang five songs.

Aditya Narayan started off without any introduction, greeted with rounds of applause. The young singer rendered five

Hindi songs, including "Sara jahaan" and "Pehla nasha."

The unbound admiration and appreciation prompted the organisers to announce a show featuring hugely popular singer Sonu Nigam at the same venue in November this year.
