

Sheer negligence

Funds for poor disabled, elderly returned just for failing to list them

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Nilphamari

About Tk 16 lakh government allowances for the poor disabled and elderly people in Kishoreganj upazila were returned allegedly due to lack of coordination between the Social Welfare Department and Union Parishad (UP) chairmen of the upazila.

Upazila social welfare office sources blamed the UP chairmen for not finalising the lists of prospective beneficiaries in time while the latter said the social welfare office failed to coordinate the matter.

In the current 2008-2009 FY also, a large amount of money allocated for the poor, disabled and elderly people of the upazila has remained undistributed and it faces the same fate as the two previous terms as the current fiscal year nears its end, sources said.

Tk 3,09,600 was allocated for disbursement among 129 prospective beneficiaries in 2006-2007 fiscal year (FY), said sources at Kishoreganj Upazila Social Welfare Office.

In FY 2007-2008, Tk 5,38,560 was allocated for 204 poor disabled people.

The government also allocated Tk 7,02,240 for disbursement among 266 poor elderly people for the FY 2007-2008.

During the two previous fiscal years, a total of Tk 15,50,400 meant for poor disabled and elderly people was returned from Kishoreganj upazila.

However, the fund allocated for poor elderly people in the upazila in FY 2006-2007 was disbursed.

According to government rules framed a couple of years ago, the fund allocated for any purpose should be disbursed within the same fiscal year otherwise it would be returned.

When asked, Kishoreganj upazila acting Social Welfare Officer Sadekur Rahman Mondol said the funds were returned as the UP chairmen concerned failed to finalise the lists of beneficiaries in time.

On behalf of the upazila's UP chairmen, Magura UP chairman Sohrab Hossain said the social welfare office concerned did not coordinate the work timely.

Deprived of the allowances for a long time, around 600 poor disabled and elderly people in the upazila are passing their days amid utter misery.

Acid Santrash Nirmul Committee forms a human chain at Amolshid in Zakiganj upazila of Sylhet district yesterday urging people to raise protest against India's move to construct Tipaimukh dam on the Borak in the upstream of Surma and Kushiya rivers.

HUMAN CHAIN AT AMOLSHID OF ZAKIGANJ Tipaimukh to become another Farakka

Speakers at discussion express fear

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet.

People of Zakiganj yesterday formed a human chain at Amolshid in the upazila protesting Indian move to construct a dam on the river Borak at Tipaimukh in the Indian state of Manipur.

Acid Santrash Nirmul Committee, Sylhet, staged the protest against the controversial dam project, 100-km upstream of eastern border of Sylhet district.

The river Borak bifurcated into two flows and entered Bangladesh as Surma and Kushiya through Zakiganj border.

Zakiganj Pourasava (municipality) Mayor Iqbal Ahmed and Sylhet City Corporation Councillor Koyes Lodi also joined the human chain programme.

On Friday night, Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers' Association (BELA) organised a discussion in Sylhet city in observance of the World Environment Day.

Chaired by Sushasaner Janya Nagarik Sylhet chapter General Secretary Faruque Mahmud Chowdhury, the speakers raised voice against the proposed Tipaimukh dam project.

Sylhet Divisional Commissioner Zafar Ahmed Khan, TIB's Conscious Citizens' Committee Convener EU Shahidul Islam, Dr Sudhamoy Majumder, Advocate Syed Ashraf Hossain, Daily Uttar-Purbo Editor Aziz Ahmed Selim, Shahjalal University teachers Awal Biswas and Farzana Raihan, Press Club Vice-president Al-Azad, and Coordinator of Bela Sylhet chapter Ayesha Chowdhury were among the discussants.

The speakers said the people of 12 districts in the country's north-eastern region including greater Sylhet and Mymensingh and those of the Indian states of Assam and Manipur should raise their voice against the controversial dam project.

Once the project is implemented, it will create havoc in the whole region, the speakers cautioned, urging the democratic and patriotic forces to unite against the Indian move to construct the proposed dam on the river Borak.

The Indian government initiated the project about a decade ago, but could not go ahead in the face of widespread agitation from its own people at times. Even some 25 peoples' forums like that of Tipaimukh Dam Resistance Committee have been formed there to protest the move.

With reference to some experts' opinion, the discussion meeting was told that implementation of the dam project mainly aimed at producing electricity would cause a disastrous situation in the Meghna basin, especially the greater Sylhet and Mymensingh region, during the dry season due to withdrawal of water in the upper stream.

Also, they said, there are apprehensions of recurrent flooding during the monsoon due to possible release of water.

It will be another Farakka, the speakers said, urging the people to resist the move.

Two key-note papers—one on 'Tipaimukh dam: The Possible Disaster' and the other on 'climate change' were presented at the discussion by Prof Zahir Bin Alam of Shahjalal University of Science and Technology (SUST) and Zahrat Rishat of Bela.

Divisional Commissioner Zafar Ahmed Khan said the Tipaimukh dam project issue should be resolved internationally. It would not only cause disaster in Sylhet or in Bangladesh but also in the Indian states of Manipur, Mizoram and Assam, he said.

He said the Indian government is going ahead with the controversial project ignoring protests in the Manipur state.

4 AILA-HIT UPAZILAS OF KHULNA Study of 50,000 students stalled, cyclone victims still need succour

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Study of over 50,000 students is being hampered as the May 25 cyclone Aila followed by tidal surges damaged 487 academic institutions in four upazilas of Khulna district.

Meanwhile, mismanagement in relief distribution coupled with lack of materials adds to the sufferings of cyclone victims, many of them starving.

As many as 194 institutions have been damaged in Koira upazila while the number is 140 in Paikgachha, 78 in Batiaghata and 75 in Dakope upazila under the district.

Fifteen of them are colleges, 53 madrasas, 113 high schools and the others are government and non-government primary schools.

In the four upazilas, most of the 198 unharmed institutions have been made temporary shelters for the people who have turned homeless by the cyclone and tidal surges.

Many homeless people are still staying on embankments and in cyclone centres in remote areas of worst affected Koira and Dakope upazilas of Khulna district.

A large number of cyclone victims are suffering for want of food and pure drinking water while there are allegations of lack of coordination in distribution of relief goods.

The district administration has been facing a lot of problems due to lack of coordinated efforts in distribution of relief goods, said Paikgachha Upazila Nirbahi Officer Md Sabur Hossain.

It is very difficult to determine if worst victims are getting relief goods or some people are taking it more than once through unfair means, said Dakope upazila Chairman Abul Hossain.

Malpractice in distribution coupled with unavailability of relief materials have added to the sufferings of affected people, mostly starving, said Koira upazila Chairman Md Mohsin Reza.

Meanwhile, very little relief materials have reached Sharankhola and Morrelganj upazilas of Bagerhat district, sources said.

Seized dates disappear

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

A large quantity of dates, which was seized as a case evidence on October 8 in 2007, have gone 'missing' from Bogra Sadar Police Station.

After seizure of about 1770 kg 'low quality' dates worth about Tk 1,77,000 from Joyati Falbhandar in Bogra town during an anti-adulteration drive, Sanitary Inspector of district health department Md Shah Ali Khan filed a case with Sadar Police Station against Mizanur Rahman Manju, police and court sources said.

Asked about the seized dates by Senior Judicial Magistrate Md Ziaur Rahman during trial of the case, police informed the court that the seized dates were destroyed on the premises of Bogra Police Lines following a court order.

In a reply to a court order to show supporting legal papers, Sadar Police Station Assistant Sub-Inspector Md Abdul Aziz Mondal on June 3 submitted a report saying that there were no documents regarding destruction of the seized dates.

Former OC of Bogra Sadar Police Station, Hasan Shamin Iqbal told The Daily Star over cell phone yesterday that the dates were buried following a court order during his period but somehow the documents were 'misplaced'.
