Story of a New Dawn

Aktel – The Daily Star englishinschools has embarked on a voyage to ensure brighter future for the students across Bangladesh. Students in secondary schools will have opportunities to learn English correctly and easily in their own school premise and prepare themselves for a world of possibilities waiting for them.

1000 secondary schools in 64 districts all over the country will be covered under Aktel-The Daily Star englishinschools with the following supports:

- Special weekly pages in The Daily Star dedicated to English learning
- 3 copies of The Daily Star will be provided to the selected schools, 5 days a week, free
- Interactive programmes, activities and events for students and teachers aimed at improving their English learning skills

Let's meet our opportunities as we step ahead.
