Four get life for rape

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Sylhet Divisional Speedy Trial Tribunal yesterday sentenced four for life for rape of two women of Chhatak upazila. The convicts are Abul Kalam, Rafique, Abdul Gafur and Abdul Awan—all hailing from Jawabazar. The court, however, acquitted six others. According to the prosecution story, Anjana Rani Das, 18, and her cousin Supta Rani Das, 20, of village Kaitak of Sunamganj were kidnapped on September 21, 2006 while waiting for transport on Sylhet-Sunamganj Road. An autorickshaw picked them to drop at home but it took the two women to a distant place where they were detained for a day and raped.

TEASERS STAB ONE ON CAMPUS

BM College students block road, beat up cop for inaction

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

Students of BM College yesterday blocked road and assaulted a police officer as the law enforcers made delay to reach the spot to nab outsiders who stabbed a student for protesting teasing of girls on the campus yesterday noon.

Tanvir Hossain, a third year honours student of economics department, protested indecent remarks at the girls by a group of outsiders on the campus. At this, one of the outsiders stabbed him, police said.

Aggrieved students brought out a procession on the campus and blocked the road in front of the college for half an hour.

In the meantime, the detained outsider's associates snatched him away.

When police came to the Tanvir was rushed to Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College Hospital in a critical condition.

College students chased the outsiders, caught one of them while others fled away.

The college authorities immediately informed police but they took much time to reach the spot, sources said.

spot after about an hour, students became agitated and assaulted Shishir Kumar Paul, a sub inspector of Barisal Kotwali Police Station.

Traffic resumed on the road at about 12:30 noon.

Principal of the college, Dr Nani Gopal Das said as police was well-informed about the incident, it is their responsibility to take action against the outsiders.

Hayatul Islam Khan, assistant police commissioner of Barisal Metropolitan Police, said police was deployed around the campus area and they are trying their best to arrest the outsider attackers.

MOVE TO 'PACIFY' HOTELIERS

Strike withdrawn, none files case at Kuakata

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

Local Awami League (AL) leaders are trying to convince the leaders of Kuakata Hotel Owners Association apparently to save party activists who were involved in ransacking Hotel Sky Palace on Saturday night.

According to sources, local police have been 'instructed' by top AL leadership of the area not to record any formal complaint regarding the attack. As a result Golam Sarwar, owner of the ransacked Hotel Sky Palace, was unable to file a case until yesterday.

On Monday, local AL leaders and activists, led by lawmaker from Patuakhali-4 (Kalapara) Mahbubur Rahman Talukder, held a meeting with the hotel owners and the police.

In the meeting, Mahbubur

Rahman, also a member of the parliamentary standing committee on the Ministry of Tourism and Civil Aviation, requested the hotel owners to withdraw their strike considering the interest of tourism in Kuakata.

Immediately after the meeting, the hotel owners withdrew their indefinite strike, which was called on Sunday after a local AL leader's musclemen ransacked Sky Palace Hotel and beat up its owner Golam Sarwar and four staff.

The lawmaker also formed a two-member probe body headed by Abdul Bareaq Molla, local UP chairman, and Ishaq Ali, officer-in-charge (OC) of Kalapara Police Station. He asked the probe body to identify the real culprits and assess the damages done to the hotel during the attack led by AL leader Monir Bhuiyan.

Golam Sarwar told The Daily Star that he had submitted a written complaint on Monday morning to the officer-in-charge of Kalapara Police Station, who refused to record the case.

But OC Ishaq Ali said Golam Sarwar requested him verbally not to record the case as the local MP assured him that the case would be filed on recommendations of the probe body.

Locals alleged that the AL leaders are trying to save their party men who were seen ransacking the hotel and beating its owner and staff.
