

14 BDR installations short on confidence

Officers posted there spend night elsewhere

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) officials still do not think it safe to spend the night at 14 out of 54 BDR installations outside the capital as they lack confidence in the jawans deployed there.

The BDR officials, deputed from army, work at the installations during the day and leave every evening to spend the night elsewhere.

During a press briefing held at the BDR headquarters yesterday, Col Jahangir Kabir Talukder, director (Ops and training), said the officials of the 14 installations do not have confidence in the BDR jawans.

"It is taking time to regain confidence in jawans and for officials to live there. The jawans of those installations took part in the BDR mutiny on February 25-26," Col Jahangir said, adding, "We are hopeful that all the installations would be used for living within a short time."

He firmly said the BDR officials have regained control over all BDR installations and units and have strengthened drives against smuggling.

BDR soldiers seized smuggled goods worth over Tk 60.22 crore between March and May this year, which is four times higher than that of the same period last year.

Col Jahangir said a total of 29 BDR jawans died, 11 of cardiac arrest, in and outside Dhaka since the February carnage at Pilkhana. He said a total of 352 jawans died of various causes from 2001 to 2008, 207 of them died of cardiac arrest. Talking to the reporters, the BDR director said the Indian Border Security Force (BSF) removed their temporary barbed wire fences from 12 places on no man's land following BDR protest.

Replying to a query, Col Jahangir said it may seem that BDR seized four times the amount of smuggled goods than they did last year; actually the quantity is almost the same but their values have increased.

Crackdown on sand traders grabbing Turag

TAWFIQUE ALI

BIWTA and Dhaka district administration jointly launched a three-day eviction drive yesterday against encroachers in the Turag near Gabtoli-Amin Bazar Bridge on the city's outskirts.

Replying to a query BIWTA Chairman Md Abdul Mannan Howlader told The Daily Star, "I have instructed all river port officials today to file cases against all river grabbers."

"We have launched a three-day eviction drive at this point of Turag but it will continue to go on until the encroachers are fully evicted," he said.

The drive started at around 10:30am with removal of a huge pile of sand of Lutfor Rahman who grabbed a section of the river to the north of Gabtoli Bridge. The chairman arrived at the site at 12:00 noon.

Responding to a query how to protect the river flood plain once recovered, Howlader said, "Construction of embankments as a permanent demarcation along the rivers surrounding Dhaka city is the answer."

Three excavators and labourers in the presence of police force and BIWTA Senior Deputy Director Golam Kabir and Deputy Director Saiful Islam started the excavation of sand.

Executive Magistrate Mohammad Mokbul Hossain joined the team by the noon.

Fresh regrouping of JMB in C'nawabganj

4 operatives held with firearms in last 5 days

RABIUL HASAN, C'nawabganj

Militants of banned Islamist outfit Jama'atul Mujahideen Bangladesh (JMB) have started regrouping in the remote villages of four upazilas in the district.

Police sources said JMB members who fled their localities during the crackdown after the August 17 serial bomb blasts in 2005 have returned to their areas in Shibganj, Bholahat, Gomostapur and Sadar upazilas and invited people secretly to join with them.

The JMB members collected arms from secret sources and trained up newly recruited members so that they can make arms and ammunition, police said.

Under this situation, police arrested four JMB members in Shibganj and Bholahat upazilas and recovered four locally-made guns and 14 rounds of bullet from their houses in last five days.

Police said many women also got involved with the outfit, as the JMB members have targeted women and youths for their membership.

Acting on a tip-off, a special police team from Dhaka arrested Abdul Munib, 25, from Kailardiar Sannayasi village Wednesday night and recovered a shooter gun and three bullets.

Earlier on June 14, police arrested Abdul Mumin, 24, from Khorogpur village under Shibganj upazila with a shooter gun and three rounds of bullet.

Following his confessional statement, police detained Abdul Rakib alias Sumon, 22, of Shamjola village in Shibganj upazila, and Rabiul Islam, 22, of Musribhujha Sonarpara village in Bholahat upazila, and found the firearms.

During the raids, police also seized books on jihad, three mobile phone sets and bullet-making materials.

Zannatul Hasan, superintendent of police of intelligence wing in Dhaka, said all the four arrestees admitted to their involvement with the outfit during interrogation.

"JMB members made only grenade and hand bomb in the past. But they are now making arms and ammunition at different places of the district. This is a new dimension and police

Iran opposition keeps up rallies defying ban

Several prominent reformists detained, defeated candidates cite 646 polls irregularities

AFP, AP, Tehran

Tens of thousands of supporters of defeated Iranian presidential candidate Mir Hossein Mousavi held a new rally in Tehran on Thursday to mourn the deaths of slain protesters, witnesses told AFP.

Chanting "Peace be upon (Prophet) Mohammed and his family", the protesters, many dressed in black, marched in south Tehran and were expected to be joined by Mousavi himself, the witnesses added.

One witness said protesters were carrying pictures of Mousavi and placards like "We have not had people killed to compromise and accept a doctored ballot box" and "Silent, keep calm."

The rally was held despite a ban by the interior ministry. The authorities have also barred the foreign media from covering such "unauthorised" events.

Electoral watchdog the Guardians Council said it had received a total of 646 complaints of irregularities in last Friday's election from the three defeated presidential candidates.

It said it had invited the trio to set out their grievances on Saturday, with a decision on
