Design Award Ceremony at KU

Khulna University organised an award-giving ceremony on 18 June at the Discipline Building for a competition on architectural designs. Three students out of 200 were awarded for their performances. The special guest at the event was Architect Bashirul Haq. The programme consisted of presentations on architectural topics, workshops and a visit to a studio.

Promise to become a good human being

SCHOOL of Business and Economics Club of Atish Dipankar University of Science and Technology organised a programme in collaboration with Bondhu Shobha of Prothom Alo on 10 June. The program was inaugurated by Pro-VC of the University Prof. Abul Hossain Sikder who was present as the chief guest.

Prof. Muhammad Mahboob Ali, Chairman, School of Business and Economics presided over the programme while A.B.M. Rashedul Hassan, the Registrar of the university, was present as the special guest. Among others Prof. M. Ekramul Haque, Chairman, Pharmacy Dept. Nurul Karim Nasim, Chairman, English Dept., Nizam Uddin Ahamed, Chairman, CST Dept. also took part in the programme. Around 250 students promised to become a good human being and to actively participate in building a poverty and corruption free Bangladesh.

Seminar on Fiscal Budget 09-10 at BRAC University

Mahdin Mahboob

A seminar on Fiscal Budget 09-10 was held on the 24th of June at BRAC University. Organised by the Economics Club of the university, the seminar had Dr. Debapriya Bhattacharya, Distinguished Fellow of Centre for Policy Dialogue (CPD) as its chief speaker. Dr. Salehuddin Ahmed, Pro Vice Chancellor of the university presided over the event and delivered a speech on the historical aspects of Bangladesh's budget.

