8th International Language & Development Conference, Dhaka

Tanzina Rahman

THE 8th International Language and Development Conference recently ended with experts addressing the challenges faced by the developing countries in regards to language development and socio-cultural issues. A total of 69 papers were presented during the conference, among which 43 papers where from local authors and 26 from international authors. British Council in partnership with the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Government of Bangladesh, Department for International Development (DFID), University Grants Commission of Bangladesh and Institute of Education and Research of University of Dhaka, hosted the programme from 23 to 25 June at Pan Pacific Sonargaon.

