Dramatist Abdus Salam honoured

ABDUL WAHED, Kurigram

Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy, Kurigram recently awarded a local theatre activist and dramatist Nataraj Abdus Salam for his contribution to stage plays, and held a musical programme at its auditorium.

On the occasion a discussion was held at the venue on June 30. Acting deputy commissioner of Kurigram, Sirajul Islam Khan, was the chief guest and executive director of NGO Solidarity, Harun-ur-Rashid Lal was special guest at the discussion. Rasheduzzaman Babu, general secretary of the local Shilpakala Academy, was in the chair.

Speakers said the award system should be implemented annually to encourage local cultural practices.

Abdus Salam referred to the age-old adage that the world is a stage, and we all have our roles to play. "The stage is a powerful means to inspire the masses and to generate awareness in virtually every issue under the sun," he added.

"Although, I've written several plays only two of them have been staged. What's important is how many quality productions go on stage," he said.

After the discussion, a local Rabindra Sangeet artiste Yasmin Zafri Reshma presented Tagore songs.

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

To provide contemporary Bangladeshi films with much-needed exposure overseas as well as to create a competitive market, the London branch of Rainbow Film Society has been arranging international film festivals since 2000.

This year's festival begins today with the screening of Humayun Ahmed's latest film "Amar Achhey Jol" at the Rich Mix Centre, Tower Hamlet at 6pm (local time).

Apart from Bangladesh, films from Iran, Malaysia, Turkey, India and United Kingdom will also be screened at the festival, which will continue till July 12.

Representing Bangladesh, five Impress Telefilm productions will be screened. Apart from "Amar Achhey Jol," other films to be screened are Enamul Karim Nirjar's "Aha!," Golam Rabbani Biplab's "Swapnodanay," Kabori Sarwar's "Aaina" and Mostafa Sarwar Farooki's "Emon Deshti Kothao Khu(n)jey Pabey Nako Tumi."
