Zainul-Quamrul Int'l Children's Art Competition '09 in December

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Named after two of the most recognised artists of the country -- Zainul Abedin and Patua Quamrul Hassan -- an international painting competition for the children will be held in December. The event, "Zainul-Quamrul International Children's Painting Competition '09," will be organised jointly by Gendaria Kisholoy Kochi-Kachar Mela and Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy (BSA). At a press conference, held at the BSA premises on July 8, the organisers informed about the competition in detail.

The competition will feature paintings by children, aged between three and sixteen. Based on age, children will divide into four groups -- 'Ka,' 'Kha,' 'Ga' and 'Gha.' The size of the painting should be 1116, or 622 inch. The last date for submitting artworks is September 30 this year. Children are allowed to paint on any subject, in any medium.

A panel of judges featuring noted artists of the country will evaluate the artworks. A five-day exhibition featuring the award-winning artworks will be held from December 26 to 30 at the National Art Gallery, BSA. The award giving ceremony will be held at the National Theatre Hall on the concluding day. This year a total of 84 awards, including four gold medals, and 116 certificates will be given.

Gendaria Kisholoy has been organising the competition biennially since 2001. The last instalment of the competition was held in 2007, where children from 24 countries participated.

The organisers informed that this year they are expecting submissions from more countries. "So far we have officially contacted nearly 80 countries through respective embassies and hope that more countries than the previous instalments will participate this time around," said member secretary of the competition, Md. Jalal Uddin.

"It is a privilege for Shilpakala Academy to get involved with such an event," said Kamal Lohani, director general, BSA.

Among others, Shafiu Rahman Dulu, director, Kochi-Kachar Mela; Musfique Ahmed, director, Department of Fine Arts, BSA and Kamol Kanti Baidya spoke at the press conference.

Mariah apologises for Jackson Memorial performance

Mariah Carey wishes she had done a better job performing "the Jackson 5's" biggest hit, "I'll Be There," at Michael Jackson's memorial Tuesday at Los Angeles' Staples Center.

On her Twitter page, the singer says she was just too overcome with emotion. As Carey sang the song with frequent collaborator Trey Lorenz, photos of Jackson flashed on a huge screen above them.

"Trying to sing today was basically impossible for me," writes Carey. "I could barely keep myself from crying. I'm sorry that I wasn't able to pull it together and really do it right, but I was literally choked up when I saw him there in front of me."

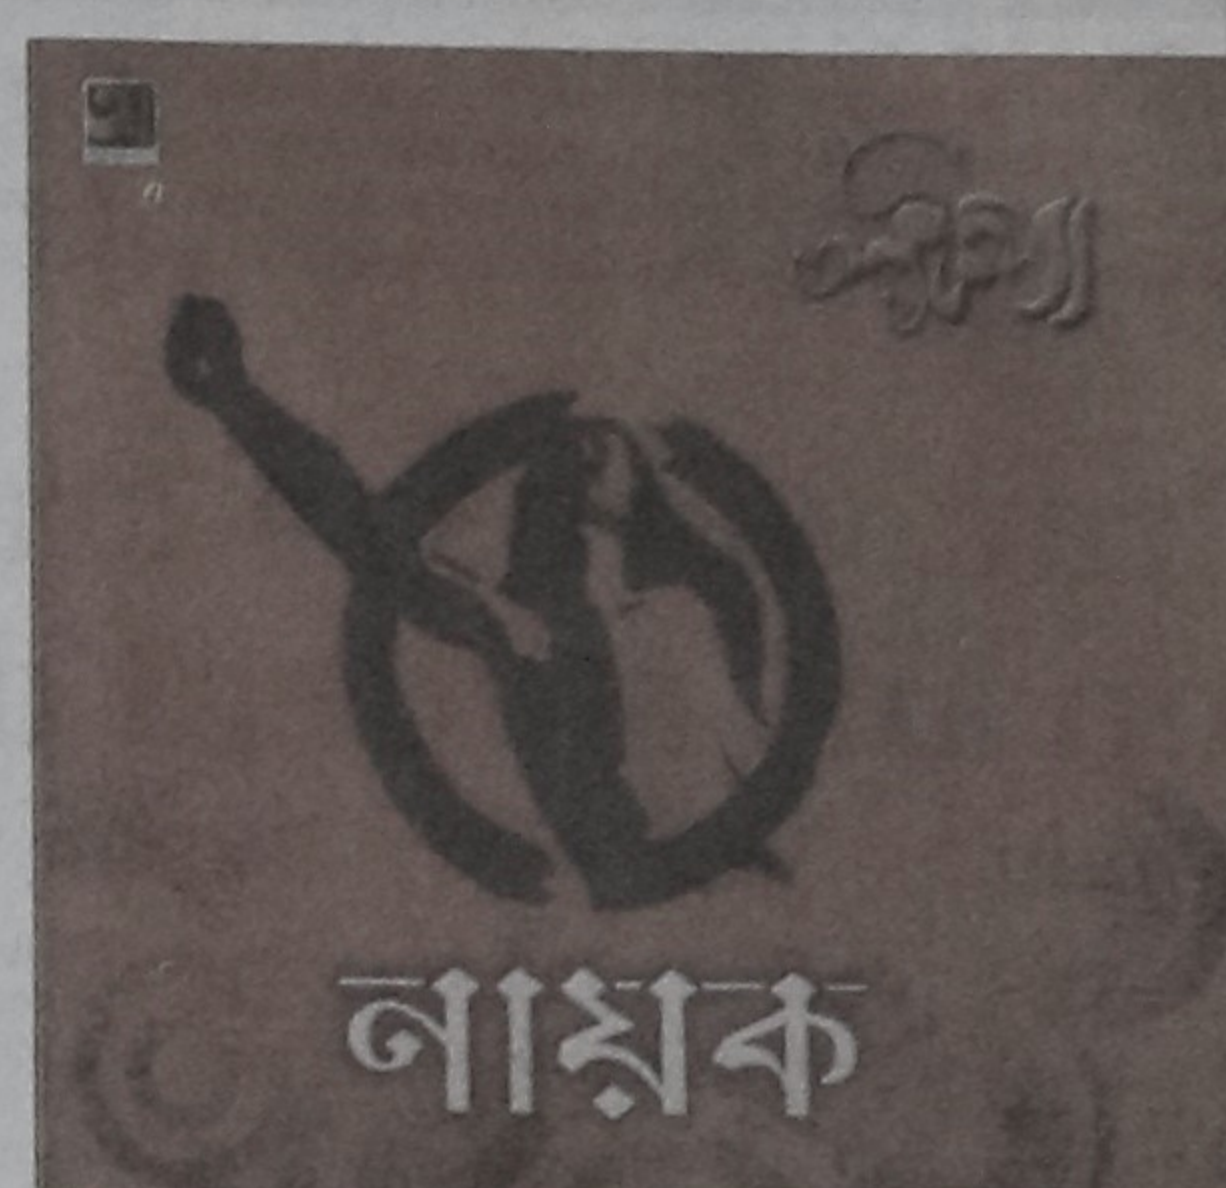

"One thing I know is, we will never really have to say goodbye to MJ. His legacy lives on through his music and the millions of people he inspired with his timeless music. He will be forever in our hearts," she adds.
