A Dhaka court yesterday relieved Awami League (AL) lawmaker Igbalur Rahim, Swechchhasebok League President AFM Bahauddin Nasim and three others of a Tk 1 crore extortion case.

Metropolitan Magistrate Mominul Hassan passed the order after the investigating officer (IO) of the case Sub-Inspector Nasim Uddin of Shahbagh police submitted final report finding the charges brought against them false.

The three others are AL Assistant Secretary and former student leader Shafi Ahmed, and former Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) leaders Shah Alam and SM Kamal.

The anti-crime taskforce members of July 31 in 2007 arrested former in I general, secretary Iqbalur Rahim from the city's Shegunbagicha area after MM Qalid Mirza, managing director of MRG Ltd, filed an extortion case against them.

The taskforce arrested Rahim as he came out of the Anti-Corruption Commission office at Shegunbagicha after submitting his wealth statement.

In the case statement, the complainant mentioned that the accused forced him to provide them Tk 1 crore in return for a Tk 4.51 crore tender they won for him for supplying metres and other equipment to Desain 2001.

Qalid Mirza, director of the power generation equipment supply company, mentioned in the FIR (first information report) that he gave the amount in cash and cheques on different dates.

He also alleged that the accused threatened him of dire consequence and compelled him to give the money.

VANDALISM IN GARMENT FACTORIES

Surrender before trial court

HC asks 3 labour leaders

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court (HC) yeşterday directed three labour leaders to surrender before the trial court within eight weeks in connection with three cases filed against them following the recent vandalism in garment factories in Ashulia.

The HC bench of Justice MA Wahhab Miah and Justice Md Abdur Razzaque asked the law enforcers not to harass or arrest them in the cases until submission of police reports.

The court passed the orders upon separate bail petitions filed by the accused in the cases.

The petitioners are Rafiqul Islam Sujan, Sayem Sarkar and Helalur Rahman.

They appeared before the HC bench, seeking anticipatory bail in the cases.

Ashulia police filed the cases on charge of vandalism and arson during the threeday violent incidents in the factories at Ashulia.

Advocate Hasinur Rahman appeared for the petitioners.
