ON July 10, 2009 Dhaka Medical College (DMC) celebrated its sixty-third anniversary. DMC started its journey in July 1946 with less than 150 students. Now, it is the largest and biggest medical college and hospital in the country. It has more than 1700 beds and 1100 undergraduate and 900 postgraduate students. DMC has a fine tradition of providing medical services to the nation and producing the finest of doctors working in both the country and abroad.
