Tk 7cr swindled out of 12,000

Shady marketing company shut its offices collecting money from small investors in Rangpur

RAFIQUE SARKER, Rangpur

A shady multilevel marketing company closed down its offices within two years of operation allegedly after collecting Tk 7 crore from over 12,000 small investors in Rangpur, Nilphamari, Thakurgaon and Dinajpur.

Sources said hundreds of shareholders of the company, TIDY Corporation Ltd, are seen waiting at its head office on College Road in Rangpur every day to get back the money they invested.

The fake company's head office in Rangpur and all branch offices in nine upazilas of four districts have been closed. Many of the shareholders lodged complaints with the local administration but to no avail.

The company sprouted in January 2007 with its head office in Rangpur and 25 branch offices at Baliadangi and Birganj in Thakurgaon, Domar, Dimla, and Jaldhaka in Nilphamari, Fulbari and Parbotipur in Dinajpur, Taraganj, Badaganj and Sadar upazilas in Rangpur. Chandan Roy of Taraganj upazila in Rangpur conceived the company and became its managing director (MD).

The TIDY Corporation Ltd set up a mixed and organic fertiliser company at Borobhita under Jaldhaka upazila in Nilphamari district and engaged as many as 194 agents to sell shares of Tk 3,200 each to over 12,000 people of the four districts. The company said the shareholders could earn at least Tk 700 a month by selling their products (mixed and organic fertiliser) to people.

Ranga Miah, manager of the company's Rangpur Sadar upazila branch, told this correspondent over phone that they sold about 22,000 shares in the four districts and claimed most of the shareholders got benefits.

Ministry sources said a target of five to seven

Most govt schools run without top teachers

ALPHA ARZU

Most of the government secondary schools are running without headmasters, assistant headmasters and adequate number of assistant teachers due to bureaucratic tangles and reluctance of the education ministry to fill the vacant posts.

Officials at the ministry say 252 out of 317 public secondary schools don't have headmasters for the past four years. This is severely hampering academic and administrative progress of the schools.

The Directorate of Secondary and Higher Education (DSHE) officials say 273 posts of assistant headmasters and more than 600 posts of assistant teachers are also vacant in schools imparting lessons among about two lakh students.

The DSHE officials blame it on the administrative logjam and reluctance of the ministry to properly address the issue.

Speaking anonymously, a DSHE deputy director says: "We can't appoint required number of assistant headmasters because of the rules set by a statutory regulatory order (SRO) issued in 2004."

"Since we are unable to appoint the assistant headmasters, we find no teachers fit for becoming headmasters," the DD adds.

The SRO stipulates 50 percent of assistant headmasters through direct recruitment and 50 percent through promotion.

Pakistani troops backed by fighter jets killed more than 30 suspected Taliban militants around the Swat valley and northwest tribal belt on the Afghan border, officials said yesterday.

Huji's Hannan, Lashkar's Obaidullah old friends

They were roommates in Deoband madrasa

KAILASH SARKAR

Detained Lashkar-e-Taiba leader Indian national Mufti Obaidullah and Harkatul Jihad al Islam (Huji) Bangladesh chapter leader Mufti Abdul Hannan were teachers and roommates at an Uttar Pradesh madrasa in India in the 1990s.

They were also closed to each other since they were students of Deoband Madrasa in India and maintained an intimate friendship for 20 years.

Sources say Obaidullah was informed about all Huji activities, including the August 21 grenade attack and Ramna blast, in which Hannan is an accused.

The sources say Mufti Obaidullah and other Lashkar leaders knew all the Huji leaders and were aware of the feud centring Huji leadership. They also tried to solve the feud, the sources add.

Detectives suspect Huji sheltered the Lashkar leaders in Bangladesh and helped them get jobs at different madrasas.

Meanwhile, Mufti Obaidullah was sent to TFI cell from the Detective Branch (DB) custody for interrogation, while his immediate boss -- another Lashkar leader and also Indian national Moulana Mansur Ali alias Habibullah -- was placed on seven-day remand yesterday.

Both the Lashkar leaders were working in
