Election officials asked to perform duties honestly

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) ATM Shamsul Huda yesterday said election officials have to perform their duties honestly in accordance with the existing law.

Welcoming the newly appointed officials, he said training is necessary to perform their daily administrative work properly.

The CEC said this at a training programme on 'Office management, election conducting and information technology' organised by Election Training Institute at NEC conference room in the city for 92 upazila election officers.

One cannot be skilled at his or her job unless they are well trained, he said, adding that gaining skill in data entry and use of computer is a must for the election officials.

The CEC also mentioned that server station is being set up at every upazila and election officers will monitor the setting up of the stations properly.

He also urged the election officers to listen to the general public in their respective areas patiently and assist them.

The programme was presided over by Election Commission Secretary Md Humayun Kabir where election commissioners Md Sohel Hossain and Brig Gen (ret'd) M Sakhawat Hossain and Additional Secretary Dr Rafiqul Islam were present.

The training will continue until August 30 in three batches, a government handout reads.

Torture of housewife condemned

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Mahila Parishad yesterday expressed deep concern over the medieval-style torture of a housewife by her husband over dowry at Kalapara upazila in Patuakhali.

On July 30, one Anwar Hawlader beat up his wife Asma at their house in Kalapara, leaving her unconscious, as she refused to bring Tk 50,000 from her father. Mistaking her for dead, Anwar then put her in a nearby jungle. But local people rescued her and admitted her to hospital.

In a statement yesterday, Mahila Parishad leaders strongly condemned the incident and demanded exemplary punishment to those responsible.

They also urged the government to formulate a separate law to stop domestic violence.

They also called on the government to take immediate steps to ensure better treatment for the victim.

Attack on college teacher protested

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

BCS General Education Association yesterday strongly condemned the heinous attack on Kamal Uddin, former principal of Gafargaoan Govt College in Mymensingh, on July 30 and demanded exemplary punishment to the culprits.

It also threatened to go for a tough movement if the law enforcement agencies do not investigate into the incident properly, says a press release.

The association also vowed to extend its support to investigate the incident impartially.
