Remembering Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan

Book launch and musical soiree at Public Library

Mina Barua (centre) sings at the programme.

MAINUL HASSAN
Musical school Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan Sangeet Academy held a programme at Shawkat Osman Memorial Auditorium, Central Public Library on August 5. The event marked the 94th birth anniversary of folk maestro Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan. A collection of songs of Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan was launched at the programme. Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Professor AAMS Arefin Siddique was the chief guest at the event. The programme started with the book launch. Titled "Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan-er Gaan," the collection contains 50 songs -- patriotic, romantic and more. Some rare songs written by 'Polli-kobi' Jasim Uddin, which were later tuned and recorded by Momtaz Ali Khan, have also been included in the book. "Tumi amar bondhu lago," "O dhan bhaniyey dhekitey pa diya," "Ghatay lago rey nao kuley lagao" and "Tumi kaindo ma orey amar jaon bela," are some of the songs included in the book. Apart from lyrics, the book also contains notations of the songs (as done by Momtaz Ali Khan) to preserve the original compositions. Speaking at the programme Professor AAMS Arefin Siddique said, "Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan made significant contributions to our folk music throughout his life." Referring to Momtaz Ali Khan's songs on nature, Professor Siddique added, "In his songs the true essence of Bengal shines in an amazing way." "His timeless compositions are valuable assets. Measures should be taken immediately to preserve his songs for future generations," Professor Siddique said. Golam Kuddus, general secretary, Shammilito Shangskritik Jote and folk artiste Mina Barua were special guests at the event. This is the third book of Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan's songs published by the academy. "The main purpose of publishing these books is to safeguard the original compositions of Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan," said Rupu Khan, daughter of Momtaz Ali and executive director of the academy. A cultural programme followed the book launch. Folk artistes Mina Barua, Latifa Helen, Chaitali Khan (granddaughter of Ustad Momtaz Ali Khan), Abdus Alim Khan, Nurun Nahar and others performed songs of Momtaz Ali at the programme. Dance performances were staged by members of the academy.

Aerosmith's Steven Tyler hospitalised

In the latest injury to befall Aerosmith's star-crossed summer tour, lead singer Steven Tyler, 61, fell backwards off the stage on Wednesday night during the band's show in Rapid City, South Dakota, and was airlifted to a hospital for treatment. According to The Associated Press, after the sound system at the annual Sturgis Motorcycle Rally failed during the song "Love in an Elevator," Tyler was dancing around in an attempt to entertain the crowd when he fell. "He does a lot of dancing on the stage and he does a lot of stuff with his mic stand. He put his stand down and twirled around and stepped backwards off the stage," said Mike Sanborn, spokesman for the Buffalo Chip Campground, which hosted the outdoor concert. About halfway through the show, Tyler reportedly stepped backward off the stage's catwalk and fell onto a couple of fans. Security guards rushed in to help the singer, and the fans cheered when Tyler got back up. Though Sanborn said he was in good spirits and was joking with a physician when he was loaded onto a helicopter bound for Rapid City Regional Hospital, Tyler suffered minor head and neck injuries and a shoulder injury in the fall. The AP said it was not known how serious the injuries were. Shortly after the incident, Aerosmith guitarist Joe Perry came out to inform the crowd that Tyler had been airlifted to a hospital and that the show was over. The Tyler tumble is the latest injury to befall the veteran hard rockers on the road. In February, the international kickoff in Venezuela was cancelled because of an infection sustained by Perry that required emergency surgery related to a knee replacement he underwent in 2008. Last month, the band was forced to cancel seven shows due to an unspecified injury, rumoured to be a pulled leg muscle, sustained by Tyler onstage. That was followed by bassist Tom Hamilton's departure for a handful of dates in order to recuperate from unspecified "non-invasive surgery." Earlier in the trek, guitarist Brad Whitford was forced to sit out the initial dates due to a head injury, which required surgery, sustained when he was getting out of his Ferrari. Several months before the tour, Tyler checked into rehab to recuperate from foot surgery. In March he contracted pneumonia, which pushed back sessions for the group's new album. Source: Internet
