INTERNATIONAL

Iran military for holding trial of opposition leaders

Hardliners slam UK over post-polls unrest

AFP, Tehran

A top official with Iran's Revolutionary Guards called on Sunday for the main opposition leaders to be put on trial for the disputed presidential election.

Mohammad Khatami and defeated challengers Mir Hossein Mousavi and Mehdi crisis that has gripped Iran since President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad's reelection in June.

Javani, head of the Revolutionary topple the 30-year-old Islamic regime exposed.

"The question is who were the main country. planners and agents of this coup. What is Karroubi in this coup?" he said in an article in Sobh-e Sadegh, the Guards' weekly journal.

"If they are the main agents, which is should go after them, arrest them, try them and punish them."

Mousavi and his supporters have refused to accept Ahmadinejad's landtrying to orchestrate a "velvet coup" after slide victory in the June 12 vote, saying it was the result of massive rigging, and Yadollah Javani said former president setting off the worst crisis since the Islamic revolution of 1979.

Hundreds of thousands of protesters section. Karroubi should be prosecuted over the took to the streets to protest at the vote and in the ensuing violence about 30 people were killed, hundreds wounded and several thousand initially arrested.

Iran has put on trial about 110 people Guards' political bureau, said a plot to over the unrest, including British and French embassy staff and a French through a "velvet coup" has been woman lecturer, and accused foreign governments of plotting to destabilise the Masoud Jazayeri, deputy chief of staff the role of Khatami, Mousavi and of Iran's armed forces, also said plotters should be dealt with and called for "more control" on foreign embassies to deter British government, according to local "colour coups".

"Iranian citizens... are waiting to see from covering the trial.

the case, judiciary and security officials how the agents of this recent plot will be confronted," the official IRNA news agency quoted him as saying.

On Saturday, Hossein Rassam, political analyst at the British embassy in Tehran, appeared in the dock along with French lecturer Clotilde Reiss, and Franco-Iranian Nazak Afshar, who works for French embassy's cultural

The trial -- the latest crackdown by the authorities against the opposition provoked outrage in London and the European Union's Swedish presidency said it was an act against the entire 27 nation bloc.

Rassam was one of nine local British embassy employees detained in the aftermath of the election and has been charged with spying.

He told the revolutionary court in Tehran he had been instructed by his superiors to monitor the protests for the press reports. Foreign media were barred

People watch as rescue boats search the area where a small airplane and helicopter collided over the Hudson River on Saturday in Hoboken, New Jersey. According to reports, a small plane carrying three people, which took off from Teterboro Airport in New Jersey, collided with a helicopter owned by Liberty Tours that was carrying approximately six people.

Nepalese men from the Tamang ethnic minority community play drums and mask dance in Kathmandu to mark the International Day of the World's Indigenous People yesterday. Nepal is an ethnically diverse country and some of its minority groups complain they have long been underrepresented in government.

Iran's police chief acknowledges prisoner abuse

Israeli PM vows never to evict settlers

AP, Tehran

Iran's police chief acknowledged yesterday that protesters detained in postelection unrest were abused in custody but said the deaths of prisoners were caused by illness, not torture.

seized on claims of abuse at Kahrizak detention centre, saying young people protesting President Mahmoud rulers. Ahmadinejad's June 12 redeath there.

own conservative support opposition.

AFP, Jerusalem/ Bethlehem

committed in the prison and that those responsible should be brought to trial.

The issue has come to the fore as Iran presses forward figures, opposition activists Iran's opposition has and others accused of to spying and seeking to topple the country's Islamic

The trial, which has election were tortured to included televised confessions that rights groups say are More troubling for the likely extracted through presgovernment, however, is that sure, is the government's some prominent figures in its latest attempt to crush the base also say murders were with a mass trial of more than 100 prominent reformist offences ranging from rioting

US plane, helicopter collide over Hudson: 9 killed

AP, Hoboken

As investigators try to piece together how a small plane and tourist helicopter came to enter each other's airspace over the Hudson River on a clear summer day, divers were to search for clues to the crash believed to have claimed nine

Three bodies were recovered Saturday, hours after the descended into the Hudson midday collision sent hundreds who were out enjoying the weekend searching for down just south of the stretch cover from falling debris. Safety Board Chairman Debbie Hersman told a news no miracle. conference that a helicopter heliport for Liberty Tours, plane approaching the helicopter and tried to alert the helicopter pilot.

"He radioed the accident helicopter and told him, 'One-lima-hotel. You have a fixed-wing behind you.' There was no response from the pilot," she said. Then, the plane. pilot on the ground saw the plane's right wing strike the helicopter "and both aircrafts

The two aircraft went of river where a US Airways jet National Transportation landed safely seven months the two aircrafts. Aircraft of ago. But this time, there was their size are not required to Mayor Michael Bloomberg pilot on the ground at the said the midair crash was "unsurvivable." The helicopwhich operated the doomed ter carried five Italians tour- cause of the accident," sightseeing craft, saw the ists and the plane had two Hersman added.

passengers, including a child. The river's strong currents and poor visibility hampered divers' efforts to recover the bodies. Hersman said challenging river conditions also

"I think they are coming back with some promising returns and they will continue to look" Sunday, she prevented investigators from marking the location of the

She said she did not know if there were black boxes or other recording devices on have such equipment.

"Even if we do not recover any recording device .. the NTSB can still determine the

Britain warned by MPs on torture complicity

AFP, London

warned Sunday by a body of lawmakers that regularly through torture could be it," the report said. legally construed as complicgovernment fulfilled its legal obligations to prevent torture regular basis, especially where and probe alleged incidents, the Foreign Affairs Committee (FAC) scrutiny body said in its annual human rights report.

The report comes as British intelligence agencies face strued as complicity in such allegations of involvement in the questioning of terror suspects in countries such as Pakistan, including supplying questions for interrogators.

It is imperative that the UK ing terror attack but which terror.

fulfils its legal obligations in may have been obtained The British government was torture, including any duty to act positively to prevent it, investigate allegations that it

> "We further conclude that there is a risk that use of eviobtained under torture on a it is not clear that protestations about mistreatment have elicited any change in behaviour by foreign intelli-> behaviour." The committee acknowledged that using intelligence supplied by other countries which could avert a devastat-gence services, could be con-respect of the prevention of through torture "raises profoundly difficult moral ques-The government had a duty using information gained has taken place, and expose to use information, whatever its source, if it believed it could save lives, it said. "At the same time, we

It was "imperative" that the dence which may have been strongly recommend that the government should continue to exert as much persuasion and pressure as possible to try to ensure world-wide that torture is not employed as a method of interrogation."

The FAC also accused the Foreign Office of "pulling its punches" over the "massive scale" of human rights abuses in Saudi Arabia, a key ally in the fight against international

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu pledged yesterday

that he will never evict Jewish settlers from occupied Palestinian land as Israel did in 2005 in the Gaza Strip. "The withdrawal from the Gaza Strip brought us neither peace nor security. The territory has become a base for the pro-Iranian Hamas movement and we will never make the same mistake again," Netanyahu'said at the start of the weekly cabinet meeting. "We will not evict any more > added in comments carried by public radio. government of prime minister rump party. Ariel Sharon unilaterally removed all Jewish settlements from Gaza, also empty-

Bank settlements, in a move aimed at ending Israel's costly 38-year military presence in the Gaza Strip.

Sharon vowed to follow up that withdrawal with further pullbacks from the West Bank but a massive stroke incapacitated him and his successor Ehud Olmert abandoned the policy in the wake of the June 2006 capture of an Israeli soldier by Gaza-based militants in a deadly cross-border

When Sharon formed a new centrist party, dubbed Kadima, to advance his plans, Netayanhu refused to join him in breaking away from their right-wing Likud and In September 2005, the remained at the helm of the Kadima, now led by former foreign minister Tzipi Livni, has become the main opposiing four remote northern West tion party.

A giant column of dark smoke rises more than 20,000 feet into the air, after the second atomic bomb ever used in warfare explodes over the Japanese port and town of Nagasaki, in this Aug 9, 1945 file photo. Dropped by the US Army Air Forces B-29 plane 'Bockscar,' the bomb killed more than 70,000 people instantly, with ten thousands dying later from effects of the radioactive fallout. This photo was snapped 3 minutes after the atom bomb struck Nagasaki.

Nagasaki mayor calls for global N-arms ban

AP, Tokyo

The mayor of Nagasaki called for a global ban on nuclear arms at a ceremony marking the 64th anniversary of the devastating US attack on the Japanese city that killed about 74,000 people.

In a speech given just after 11:02 a.m. the time when a plutonium American bomb flattened Nagasaki on Aug. 9, 1945 Mayor Tomihisa Taue said some progress had been made toward eliminating nuclear weaponry but more needed to be done.

He cited a speech by President Barack Obama in April calling on the world to rid itself of atomic weapons, but also noted a nuclear test blast by North Korea in May.

Traffic dept caught in poor logistics Rodent horror looms large in hills Another army camp

FROM PAGE 16 police generally do not arrest drivers and seize vehicles for having anomalies in documents or for making an error while driving since they do not have adequate number of traffic police or proper enclosures or keeping vehicles. If drivers are arrested, a good number of traffic personnel will have to be involved in court cases that would have an adverse impact on traffic management." He said 450 traffic sergeants against a total of 600 posts, 18 assistant commissioners against 22 posts, two additional deputy commissioners against four posts, and two deputy commissioners against four 3 posts control the everworsening Dhaka city traffic.

He said there are only 400 motorbikes for the sergeants. He said at least 5,000 traffic policemen are needed to control traffic in the capital but they have around 2,000. arresting drivers for defying traffic rules and city dwellers observe that they only make arrests after an accident has occurred. Joint commissioner (traffic) buses ply the city streets. office sources said 48 people were killed in 94 traffic accidents in the capital between dishonest traffic policemen let

January and April this year. of accidents to them and they two or three times more had the police given them true figures.

number of people held on defying traffic rules.

Traffic police sources said compared to the capacity of the city streets far too many vehicles use them and recently a good number of public vehicles without route permits and fitness certificates aggravated congestion. Jasim said over five lakh rickshaws are plying the city streets and slow-moving rickfight for space making traffic accidents unavoidable.

He said bus drivers become reckless to overtake other buses to pick up more passengers at intersections, which often causes accidents and congestion.

Jasim said traffic sergeant Baset was killed on the pavement of Mirpur Road at College Gate when he was checking the documents of a bus and Traffic police still avoid another bus rear-ended it on May 19. apart from private cars, motorbikes and microbuses, over 2,000 pickup vans and 6,000

Dhaka Sarak Paribahan Samity sources said a number of buses without route permits The sources claimed that the and fitness certificates run by police stations of the capital do providing them with "case not provide the accurate figure receipts" in exchange for bribes. Traffic police sources said fearthe casualty figure would be some unscrupulous officers and comparatively cheap misusing the provision of traffic laws, allow drivers of unfit and

The office could not give the un-roadworthy buses to run for a certain period of time. They seize charge of causing accidents and the documents and give the drivers the case receipts, which allow the driver an interim period to settle the case in court. They said buses that do not > intend to get their papers up to date usually take advantage of this loophole. Bus drivers said a driver has to pay Tk 300-500 per case receipt as bribe and Tk 500-700 for re-issuing the receipt. shaws and fast-moving vehicles goes on, Jasim said he had ordered the traffic police not to congestions and frequent seize route permits when they confiscate documents and give > case receipts. He said in that way buses without route permits would not be on the streets.

Bus Owners' Association sources said city bus staff are paid on trip basis and in their desperation to get more trips with more passengers they violate traffic laws.

Hazi Mohammad Ali, owner of a bus that runs between Traffic police sources said Motijheel and Banani, told The Daily Star that for a roundtrip bus conductors and drivers get Tk 160 and they can make 4-5 roundtrips a day.

Asked about fitness of buses, sources in the Bus Owners' Association said prices of spare parts are very high and that is why "they only maintain bare essential parts". On underage drivers, they said scarcity of expert drivers underage drivers are the causes.

behind employing them.

Experts said that after consuming the bamboo fruits rats reproduced at an accelerated rate -- some six to eight times in a year. The last time such a crisis occurred here was in crop Two hill districts Rangamati and Banderban were severely people from their homes," he of Khagrachhari was also affected. Admitting that the practice | time distributed only 10 kg of said. rice per household through the union parishad, jhum cultivators said. This support affected by the crisis and parts was very inadequate they complained. Jhum cultivators said the rat population is still high so they expect that their crops extent again this year.

Sudarshan Chakma, a 45year-old cultivator said, "Rats took over my land like a flood and ate up everything that I had. My family literally had nothing to eat for a few days."

Rangamati, said he received only 10 kg of rice from the government as help.

on jhum cultivation of paddy, sesame, cucumber, cotton, mandatory savings. ginger, gourd and maize and 80 to 90 percent of the crops were damaged in 2007.

another cultivator from aid of US$ 2.6 million for the Orachhari village under Belaichhari upazila in Rangamati told this corre- 2010. spondent rats had already started attacking his paddy

I used to sow 40 kg of paddy seeds and harvest around 1,600 kg of paddy. In 2007, I was able to harvest only 450 kg of paddy. This year I have sown only 20 kg of paddy Chikanya Tripura, 35, said he used to sow 30 kg of seeds and harvest around 700 kg of paddy. This year he has used as seed only half of that.

In 2007, the WFP provided portion of their harvest for the emergency assistance to around 26,000 households will be damaged to some between May to September 2008. Four rounds of food distribution took place consisting of 50 kg rice, four litres lands the following season," of vegetable oil and two kg salt she said. to each household.

Rodent Crisis Recovery Sudarshan, a resident of Programme (RCRP) to lift the Uttar Rui Lui of Sajek union affected people of the area. under Baghaichhari upazila in Covering around 7,850 households from Jurachhari, Belaichhari and Baghaichhari in Rangamati and Ruma, Reports of World Food Thanchi and Alikadam in Programme (WFP) says that Bandarban. Under this tives and the agriculture majority of the affected house- scheme, WFP will be providing holds in the area is dependent cash for work, cash for training and motivate the locals to Commission for Humanitarian Aid (Echo) is Nagojiya Chakma, 60, also handing out a financial its storage."

project to be implemented from April 2009 to January

One of the beneficiaries of the WFP's RCRP Shanti Jibon Chakma told The Daily Star that the WFP's project is giving them some respite from the crisis but they need further assistance to strengthen the food security in the region.

Project Coordinator of The government at the seed due to lack of seeds," he RCRP Tania Cass told The Daily Star, "The crisis is still continuing but people are slowly recovering in some areas in the hill districts." "The Jhum cultivators used to retain some seeds from a > nest year's cultivation. When the rodent crisis wiped out their storage, they not only faced starvation but also had no means to cultivate their When contacted The WFP has started a Additional Secretary of the Agriculture Ministry Anwar Faruque told The Daily Star he was not aware of any such seed crisis in the area. He said, "They (the cultivators) should let the ministry know at once about their crisis through the local representa-

"The government will surely provide them with the required seeds if they The European approach the ministry, and given that the government has that specific variety of seeds in providing security services to 10 areas including Dighinala upazila since 1988.

FROM PAGE 1

Dighinala Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) Moniruzzaman Miah confirmed the demolition work of the camp that started this morning.

"I think the law and order will not worsen after the pullout and civil administration along with police is always ready to check any situation, he said. The government on July 29 announced it would dismantle one brigade of troops and 35 temporary security camps from CHT areas by September. The pullout started on Friday with a camp in Manikchhari under Laxmichhari army zone in Khagrachhari.

And the next day, two more camps under Laxmichhari army zone in Khagrachhari-one at Magaichhari and the other at Dashbill-- were withdrawn. PETITION AGAINST PULLOUT

Meanwhile, a Supreme Court lawyer yesterday filed a petition with the High Court (HC), seeking injunction to restrain the government from withdrawing the army and their camps from hill districts.

Advocate Tajul Islam filed the supplementary petition constitution.

with a pending writ petition that he had filed back in 2007 challenging the legality of signing the CHT Peace Accord with the erstwhile "Shanti Bahini" in 1997.

The petition stated that if the army camps are withdrawn from CHT districts, the Border Security Forces (BSF) of India and Myanmar's terrorist groups will intrude into the territory of Bangladesh and the country's border will be insecure. After holding a brief hearing, a HC bench of Justice Syed Refaat Ahmed and Justice Moyeenul Islam Chowdhury fixed August 16 for further hearing on the petition.

Barrister Abdur Razzaq argued for the petitioner, while Attorney General Mahbubey Alam stood on the government side.

Responding to the writ petition filed by Tajul Islam, the HC on August 27, 2007, issued a rule upon the government to explain why the CHT Peace Accord signed with the "Shanti Bahini" in 1997 should not be declared unlawful.

The writ petition said the peace treaty questioned the integrity and sovereignty of the state and it is also tantamount to a breach of the