Position Vacancy Announcement

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Bangladesh invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for recruitment of a Project Management Specialist (Civil Society Advisor) for the Office of Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED).

The Civil Society Advisor provides advice and analysis to the DG-ED Office on a broad range of issues related to civil society strengthening in Bangladesh, including mapping of the civil society sector, programming opportunities and strategies for civil society development, potential for civil society networking and collaboration, civil society participation in governance, etc. S/he works with the DG Team and provides technical leadership, especially in the area of civil society participation in political governance. S/he provides technical and analytical input for all aspects of political and governance processes involving civil society roles and functions. S/he is involved in a wide range of Democracy and Governance (DG) program activities, from design to implementation and evaluation. This position acts as the Mission's Agreement/Contract Officer's Technical Representative for all civil society activities under contracts or grants. S/he will be the Mission's primary link with civil society actors including Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), think tanks and the media. S/he helps develop strategies to enhance citizens' involvement and strengthen civil society to support democratic practices and institutions. S/he acts as the technical point person and represents the Mission in coordination meetings and initiatives involving other donors and Government of Bangladesh (GoB) counterparts.

The Advisor is responsible for coordinating and monitoring activities to attain specific results under the Agency's Good Governance and Political Competition and Consensus Building program areas. S/he makes regular field trips and meets senior management and project officials of implementing partner organizations to assess the progress of the project activities. This position provides direction, judgment, and input relating to program decisions on civil society and democratic governance. S/he also suggests changes to the DG strategy related to these areas when necessary.

Required Qualifications:

Applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work.

1. Education: The incumbent must have a Master's degree in social science, public administration, political science, or other related discipline. In the absence of a Master's degree, five years of progressively responsible, job-related, development experience may be substituted.

2. Language Proficiency: English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (i.e., Level IV). Must be able to write and speak in a concise and thoughtful manner on development programs and issues. Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required.

3. Prior Work Experience: Five to seven years work experience in an NGO, Government, other donor agencies, think tank or academic institution, or any other private sector organization associated with the promotion of democracy and good governance. At least two to three years of related management experience is preferred.

4. Knowledge: In-depth knowledge of democratic institutions and processes in Bangladesh is essential. Technical knowledge must be authoritative, comprehensive, and nuanced enough to aid strategic thinking and planning. S/he must be familiar with the sub-sectors of Bangladeshi civil society, their development constraints and potentials. The Advisor must also know development programs focused on civil society advocacy and their impact. Knowledge of gender and development principles and experience in their application is preferred.

5. Skills and Abilities: Ability to develop and maintain an extensive range of contacts in civil society, government, donor agencies. Good interpersonal skills, the ability to interact with and inspire a range of individual actors and leaders, work independently and take initiative with minimal supervision, articulate programs and represent USAID policy positions at senior levels with the GoB, CSOs, and other donors are required. The incumbent must have outstanding writing skills and excellent word processing, spreadsheet, and internet skills.

Interested applicants must submit resume along with a one page cover letter stating level of education and experience that describes incumbent's suitability for this position. Please submit applications to the Human Resources Section, USAID/Bangladesh, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than September 16, 2009. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.

Going Abroad

Dr. Suvarneya Datta, Assistant Professor, Department of Microbiology, Primeasia University leaves Bangladesh today to present his research at international conferences in Japan (on pld A gene), and Taiwan (on Chitosan). Last year he joined ASM Congress held in Denmark, and his research on multidrug resistance was presented there. C-1407
