JS sits today for 3rd session

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Parliament goes into third session today with the BNP-led opposition lawmakers continuing boycott of the House.

The focal point of the session that begins at 11:00am is likely to be a resolution on the much-talked graft probe against ex-speaker Jamiruddin Sircar, his deputy Akhtar Hamid Siddiqui and former chief whip Khandaker Delwar Hossain.

Upon the probe report's submission by an all-party parliamentary committee on July 9, Speaker Abdul Hamid told the House that the matter

JS body works on unfair sacking, retirement of defence officials

RASHIDUL HASAN

A parliamentary committee yesterday sent 90 applications of armed forces officials to the defence ministry for verifying who were "deprived or harassed or sacked on political grounds" in the last seven years.

At a meeting at the Jatiya Sangsad Bhaban the parliamentary standing committee on defence ministry also asked the ministry to submit the scrutiny report to the committee at its next meeting.

Earlier on August 7, the committee sent 40 such applications to the defence ministry for verification.

The government had planned to reinstate the armed forces officials sacked "inappropriately" or "on political grounds" during the rules of the last caretaker government and the previous BNP-led coalition government, and promote "deprived" officials.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina had asked the parliamentary body to work on the matter. She had also instructed the chiefs of the three forces to look into the issue.

Manjur Kader Quraishi, chairman of the parliamentary committee, told The Daily Star: "The committee has so far received 90 applications from officials of the army, navy and air force. The headquarters of the three forces as well as the defence ministry will verify the authenticity of the appeals."

He declined to give details like how many of the applicants are sacked or deprived.

Sugar price up Dearer by Tk 3-4 a kg amid artificial crisis

REFAYET ULLAH MIRDHA and SHAHEEN MOLLAH

Sugar disappeared from majority of the local markets as a section of unscrupulous traders are making an artificial crisis in an excuse of price hike in the international market.

During a visit at the city's Karwan Bazar, it was noticed that there was a scarcity of sugar as traders said they have no supply of the item from the refiners.

Some retail traders were selling the item at Tk 52-54 per kilogram from its Saturday's price at Tk 48-50 per kg.

The wholesalers were selling sugar at Tk 2,450 per 50-kg sack comparing to its Saturday's rate at Tk 2,300 at Karwan Bazar, traders said.

Tofail Ahmed, a retailer complained that some wholesalers agreed to sell sugar to him at a cost of Tk 2,500 per 50-kg sack.

On the other hand, the wholesalers complained that the refiners and importers are not supplying the sugar to make an artificial crisis during the Ramadan.

Law Minister Shafiq Ahmed said this at a media briefing at his secretariat office yesterday also adding, "The trial will start after arranging all the logistics involved with the trial."

Nirml Committee leaders on Friday issued an ultimatum to the government to announce a roadmap for holding the trial by September 30, or they would go for a movement demanding start of the trial.
