Unleashing children's creativity through art and writing

AMINUL ISLAM, Mymensingh

To mark the International Literacy Day, essay and painting competitions were held in the district town on September 9. World Vision local ADP organised the competition in its hall room.

Around 200 students sponsored by the NGO, studying in various schools in Mymensingh municipality, took part in the painting competition in four groups. At the essay competition there were five groups.

Of the total participants, 15 will be selected for prizes in the essay competition and 12 for the painting competition. Dulal Chandra Gain was the judge of the painting competition while Monwara Begum,

Mohamad Chan Miah and Biswajit were judges of the essay competition. The winners of the competitions will be awarded at a function on September 14.

Earlier a discussion was held with Adarf Marak, World

Vision Programme Officer in the chair. ADP Manager Samarendra Sangma was the chief guest while Nikhil Chandra Roy, Sultan Ahmed, Mahbul Alam Tarafder, secretary of Alok Chitra Shilpi Sangsad AHM Motalab and Sheikh Fuad spoke on the occasion as special guests.

The speakers were of the view that such competitions could develop the inner potential of children. For an optimum education, extra-curricular activities are needed and so the children should be encouraged to go in for such creative pursuits, they added.

Every literate person, they concluded, has the duty to inspire illiterates and school children can take play a major role in this direction.

Guns N Roses coming to India

Axl Rose

US rock band Guns N Roses are set to organise a concert in India.

According to reports, the band, fronted by Axl Rose, have already signed on to perform at the Palace Grounds in Bengaluru on November 7.

However, local promoters are in talks with people in Mumbai, Delhi and Shillong.

"It is true that we are bringing Guns N Roses to India," Contactmusic quoted Raj Sinha, director of Rhapsody Inc., the company behind the confirmed Bengaluru concert, as saying.

"As of now, I can tell you that the Bengaluru concert has been confirmed. We're still in talks with people in Mumbai and Delhi, so let's hope that works out. However, there is a good chance we can take the band to Shillong as well."

"I can confirm that Axl Rose and Dizzy Reed will be there. DJ Ashba, their latest (addition), will be there. There will also be a person called Troy and two other members," he added.
