

CELEBRATING PUJA

HINDU devotees of all ages celebrate Durga puja in the capital with all due pomp and ceremony. Colour, glitter, light and the beat of drums created an ambiance of joy and splendour in almost all neighbourhoods in the city. The largest festival of the country's Hindus ended yesterday evening with the immersion of the Durga idol.

Photo: SHAFIQU ALAM

