Two centuries of Baroghoria Temple

RABIUL HASAN, Chapainawabganj

Durga Puja was celebrated recently with much pomp and pageantry at Baroghoria village, under sadar upazila in Chapainawabganj. The venue of this celebration was the historic 200-year-old Baroghoria Baish Putul Sarbojonin Durga Temple.

According to sources, 200 years ago, when zamindar Jodu Nandan and Ashu Chowdhury (of Maldah) commissioned a kachharibari at Baroghoria village, the local Hindu community built this temple. A major Durga Puja celebration started at the temple since then.

Twenty-two idols, including Lakshmi, Saraswati, Kartik and Ganesh, surround Durga at this temple.

Dilip Kumar Saha, president of Baroghoria Baish Putul Sarbojonin Durga Temple said that it is one of the major Durga Puja celebrations in the northern part of country. What sets this temple apart is the pantheon of 22 idols; most temples usually house 6/7 idols including Durga.

However, locals bemoan the fact that the celebration is losing its splendour gradually.

A five-day long mela (fair) was also held in front of the temple on the occasion. Around 100 stalls were set up at the temple premises. Traders from different parts of the country displayed their products at the mela.

The 200-year-old Baroghoria Temple houses 22 idols.

A treat for music enthusiasts in Panchagarh

Jhilik sings at the concert.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Jhilik, Channel-i Shera Kontho 2008 winner, entertained hundreds of music lovers in Panchagarh with her melodious songs on Tuesday evening at the Muktioddha Sirajul Islam Stadium in Panchagarh.

Panchagarh Shilpakala Academy organised the cultural programme.

The concert started with a chorus "Dhan-o dhanye pushpey bhora" performed by the artistes of the district Shilpakala Academy. Bangladesh Television and Radio artiste Rafiq Hanif then rendered "Bande maya lagaise," "Tomra ektara bajaiona" and "O re sampanwala."

Jhilik's father spoke on the occasion said that the young singer is a "daughter of Panchagarh". According to him, she grew up in Rangpur, but her identity is rooted in Panchagarh.

The young artiste finally took the stage and started her performance with an adhunik song "Amar prem-er dunia".

One after another, Jhilik rendered "Janinato mon-er majhey," "Shona bondhu tui amarey," "Bondhu tin din" and more.

The Channel-i Shera Kontho finished her performance with a folk song "Jeyjon prem-er bhaab janey na". The song was widely popularised by renowned folk minstrel Nina Hamid.

A sizeable crowd enjoyed the programme till midnight and Jhilik ensured her fans that she will return to Panchagarh soon.

Lawmaker Mazharul Haque Proddhan and Deputy Commissioner (DC) of Panchagarh Banomali Bhoomik spoke prior to the concert.

Britney Spears releases new single "3"

Britney Spears released her new single, "3," on September 29. The song will be featured on her greatest-hits album, "The Singles Collection," due out on November 24. She is releasing the collection to celebrate her 10 years in the music industry since the release of her seminal first single, "... Baby One More Time."

The track was produced by hit-maker and longtime Spears collaborator Max Martin, who also produced "... Baby One More Time," and its subject matter -- which appears to be about loving multiple people at one time -- is sure to cause a stir.

The song is a catchy dance track with provocative lyrics, such as, "1, 2, 3/ Not only you and me/ Got 180 degrees/ And I'm caught in between." The chorus also mentions "Peter, Paul and Mary," which would seem to be an out-of-left-field reference to the '60s folk act. (There's no indication whether this song was recorded before or after member Mary Travers' death on September 17.)

In July, during the European trek for her Circus tour, Spears tweeted that she was working with Martin on a song. "Back in the studio with Max" she wrote about the collaboration.

"The Singles Collection" will be available for purchase as a standard set and a packaged box set. The standard set will include 17 of her biggest hits, plus "3." The ultimate fan box set will contain all 29 of Spears' singles individually packaged in slip sleeves with their original artwork and B-sides or remixes. The box set will also include a DVD with all of her videos from past to present and a photo booklet with various photos spanning her career. Spears released her first greatest-hits collection, "My Prerogative," back in 2004.

Madonna celebrates UK number one

Madonna's third greatest hits album, "Celebration," has topped the UK album chart in its first week of release.

Collecting together hits like "Hung Up" and "Like A Virgin," the retrospective marks the end of the star's 27-year relationship with record label Warner.

The singer signed a $120m (£75m) deal with Live Nation in 2007. "Celebration" is her 11th number one in the UK.

In the singles chart, Taio Cruz spends a second consecutive week at the top -- the first act to do so since July.

Since then, seven different records have made an appearance at number one, with the Black Eyed Peas' "Boom Boom Pow" claiming the crown on two separate occasions.

Cruz's "Break Your Heart" ends that run, giving the London-born singer the biggest hit of his career to date.

The top 10 is peppered with album tracks this week, as music lovers cherry pick songs from newly-released albums by Jay-Z and Dizzee Rascal.

Jay-Z's duet with Alicia Keys, "Empire State Of Mind," is at number three, while Dizzee Rascal's cover of 1990s dance classic "Dirty Cash" (Money Talks) makes its first appearance at number 10.

Back in the albums chart, there are top 10 new entries for Dizzee Rascal, Mika, Cliff Richard and the Shadows and Pearl Jam.
