The government yesterday extended the deadline for recruiting retailers to distribute fertiliser in northern region by two weeks to October 15.

The decision came hard on the heels of allegations of irregularities and political consideration in retailers' recruitment that was to be completed by September 30.

MP's son 'grabs' land of 4 ship-breakers

Hired goons assault on-duty journalists

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

An Awami League lawmaker's son yesterday allegedly grabbed land of four ship-breaking yards along the coast of Sitakunda upazila.

SM Al Mamun, son of ruling AL lawmaker ABM Abul Kashem Master of Chittagong-3, encroached on the land and attached it to his under-construction ship-breaking yard.

Hired goons of Mamun also assaulted journalists, who were there to cover the land grabbing in the afternoon.

They beat up Prothom Alo reporter Pranab Baul, Samakal reporter Sekander Hossain and snatched away the camera of Prothom Alo photographer Rashed Mahmud.

Sources say about 200 men led by Mahmudul Hossain Manna appeared on the 10 acres of land owned by ship-breaking yards -- Pakija Enterprise, Asad Ship Cutting, Moslema Steel and Prime Steel -- in Kumira around 7:00am.

They started cooking in a vacation mood and side by side erected signboards and put up boundary fences around that land.

The signboards claim that the piece of land belongs to Mamun's under-construction Unique Ship-breaking Yard, witnesses say.

A tensed situation followed as men from other yards rushed there to protest the grabbing, but police intervened.

Acting Officer-in-Charge of Sitakunda police SI Bayes Alam said, "We have asked both the sides to come to the police station with their documents and settle the matter peacefully."

Rights eye legal lever on govt

ASHUTOSH SARKAR

A number of human rights organisations will soon petition the High Court to compel the government to initiate proper investigation into incidents of extra-judicial killings in the names of "crossfire", "encounter" and "gunfight".

Ain O Salish Kendra (ASK) and these organisations have already prepared the petition, in which they say some 1,070 incidents of extra-judicial killings have taken place in the country so far. But the government has not yet moved to investigate those.

The government has not even replied to an HC rule that asked it on June 29 to explain within four weeks why extra-judicial killings in "crossfire" and "encounters" should not be declared illegal, says the petition.

The HC rule came following a writ petition jointly filed by

EC expects to enrol 40 lakh new voters

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Around 40 lakh new voters are likely to be added to the country's electoral roll with photographs which is now being updated, senior officials engaged in the job said yesterday.

The number of voters in the updated list might rise to over 8.50 crore from 8.13 crore in the existing one.

But the number will be around 80 lakh less than that in the controversial voter list prepared by the Election Commission (EC) headed by MA Aziz in between 2005 and 2006, which was one of the reasons for postponement of January 22 parliamentary polls in 2007.

In the Dhaka City Corporation area, enumerators have already collected particulars of 1.28 lakh prospective voters, and they will continue to do so by making door-to-door visits till October 10, EC officials said.

"We are trying to make the voter list flawless as much as possible," said Brig Gen Shahadat Hossain Chowdhury, director of the project titled 'preparation of the electoral roll with photographs and facilitating issuing of national identity cards'.

At a press briefing yesterday, he said election officials at upazila level are examining the authenticity of already registered voters across the country. A draft voter list will be published after January 1 next year.

The EC began on June 15 sending enumerators for door-to-door visits to collect particulars of prospective voters for updating the list. It began the task of updating in the DCC area on September 29.

Matin flouted law to up service age

Accuses JS body

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A parliamentary body yesterday accused former shipping adviser Maj Gen (ret'd) MA Matin of violation of constitution and the Public Servant (Retirement) Act by increasing the service age of pilots of Chittagong port to 60 years from 57.

The parliamentary standing committee on shipping ministry recommended the ministry file cases against the former adviser and four government officials in this connection and also take departmental disciplinary actions against them.

The four officials include former shipping secretary Sheikh AK Motahar Hossain, incumbent Chairman of the Chittagong Port Authority Commodore RU Ahmed, former joint secretary of shipping ministry Abdul Matin and former senior assistant secretary of the same ministry Sharif Mohammad Masud.

The parliamentary probe found that those officials abetted the former shipping adviser in committing the offence.

It also asked the shipping ministry to send the matter to the Sugar price reset at Tk 50 a kg

SC stays bail to 14 alleged hoarders

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government yesterday fixed the retail price of sugar at maximum Tk 50 per kg in keeping with the international sugar market, said Commerce Secretary Feroz Ahmed.

The commerce secretary also said the sugar price was reset at Tk 45 per kg at the mill gate while the previous rate was Tk 39 per kg. At present, sugar is selling between Tk54 and Tk55 per kg at retail level, he added.

Meanwhile, the Supreme Court (SC) yesterday stayed the High Court (HC) orders that granted bail to 14 sugar traders from Jessore and Khulna in two cases filed against them for illegally stocking sugar last month.

Price of sugar jumped to Tk70 per kg last month due to price manipulation by a section of unscrupulous businessmen.

Following the price hike of the item the government held a series of meetings over the last few days with the importers, mill owners and refiners, wholesalers, dealers and business leaders
