A decade of Rock 'n' Roll

Artcell celebrates 10 years with a grand concert

JAMIL MAHMUD

Artcell, one of the leading rock bands of the country, celebrated its 10th anniversary on October 23 with a grand concert titled '10 Years of Artcell In-sanity'. The concert was held at Winter Garden, Dhaka Sheraton Hotel.

It was a much-awaited event for the young urban rock n' roll enthusiasts.

Deshi bands, which inspired Artcell during the last 10 years as well as bands that are being inspired by it at present, came together to celebrate this special occasion. Apart from Artcell, the presence of one or more members from leading bands like Warfaze, Miles, Feedback and Aurthohin made the concert a grand affair.

Members of upcoming bands like Cryptic Fate, Reborn, Mechanix and Power Surge also made appearances at the concert. Apart from performing their compositions, most of the bands and artistes covered at least one Artcell number.

The concert began with a rendition of 'Shaheed swarani' by Artcell. The song, from the band's second album 'Aniket Prantor' (2006), is a tribute to martyrs. Before inviting guest artistes on the stage, the band performed two more songs -- 'Onno shomoy', title track from Artcell's debut album and 'Dukkho bilash'.

Artcell's two studio albums and several solos -- featured in mixed albums -- are known for evocative lyrics on the complexities of the human mind and contemporary issues.

According to the bassist of the band, Cezanne: "Our inspiration was Metallica, but we would like to label ourselves as a 'progressive rock band'."

With a full house and dazzling lights, the ambience was all set for a charged performance. Power Surge performed three songs, including a cover of Artcell's 'Rahur grash' and Feelings' 'Sultana bibiyana'. Reborn performed two songs. Later the band's vocalist Ali joined Warfaze's Kamol and together with the members of Artcell they did a cover of the Warfaze number 'Mukti chai'.

Suman of Aurthohin joined Artcell and rendered two songs, including 'Poth chola'. With Hamin Ahmed on stage, Artcell made a homage to Miles with a cover of 'Ek jhor eshey.' Maqsood performed 'Ami jonmechi ei deshey' with Artcell.

Arshad and Morshed, members of one of the earliest progressive deshi bands Rockstrata, performed two songs, including 'Jiboner ei pothey.' Mechanix's performance of a medley, starting with Azam Khan's 'Bangladesh', was a tribute to Bangladesh rock music.

Members of Artcell also performed 'Tomakey', 'Utshober utshahey', 'Chiley kotbar shepai' and a cover of Metallica's 'Unforgiven'.

The grand event ended with a rendition of Artcell's 'Aniket prantor'.

Sneak Peek

Matt Damon in Clint Eastwood's film

Fans of Matt Damon have a reason to rejoice.

The actor will be seen in the Warner Bros movie 'Invictus,' which has been directed by four-time Oscar winner Clint Eastwood.

'Invictus,' which is based on a book 'Playing the Enemy' by South African writer Anthony Peckham, tells the inspiring true story of how Nelson Mandela (played by Morgan Freeman) joined forces with the captain of South Africa's rugby team, Francois Pienaar (Matt Damon), to help unite their country.

Newly elected President Mandela knew his nation remained racially and economically divided in the wake of apartheid. Believing he can bring his people together through the universal language of sport, Mandela rallied South Africa's underdog rugby team as they made an unlikely run to the 1995 World Cup Championship match.

The behind-the-scenes creative team is led by director of photography Tom Stern, production designer James J. Murakami, editors Joel Cox and Gary D. Roach, and costume designer Deborah Hopper, all of whom most recently worked with Eastwood on 'Gran Torino'.

Filming of 'Invictus' was accomplished entirely on location in and around the cities of Johannesburg and Cape Town, South Africa.

'Invictus' will be released in December.
