Course on Competition Policy and Law
Competition in the market for products and services is essential for a healthy growth of an economy.
A competitive market fosters investment in an economy and also helps the consumers through maintaining a fair price in the market. To this end, CUTS International, Unnayan Shamannay, and United International University (UIU) have launched the first Certificate Course on Competition Policy and Law in Bangladesh. The first semester course will begin on 31 October 2009.

The first semester is sponsored by the Bangladesh Investment Climate Fund (BICF), managed by the International Finance Corporation (IFC), in partnership with the U.K. Department for International Development and the European Union. For this semester, the seats are very limited and open to selected participants. However, the course will be run independently by the Institute of Business and Economics Research of UIU every year. Interested individuals are requested to contact Unnayan
