Train-the-Trainers
on Profitable Environmental Management

PROGRESS is inviting service providers, consultancy firms and independent consultants, trainers, universities and NGOs who would like to work in the field of Cleaner Production, environmental standards, eco-efficiency and chemical management to participate in a Train-the-Trainers course.

PROGRESS is a program for the promotion of social, environmental and production standards in the ready-made garment sector, funded by the German Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and jointly implemented by the Ministry of Commerce (MoC) of Bangladesh and the German Technical Cooperation (GTZ).

The training includes

- A one-week refresher course on training skills development in BIM (Bangladesh Institute for Management) in the first week of December followed by
- Class room training on Good Housekeeping and Chemical Management in January/February and
- Practical, hands-on training in factories in January/February.

A Course Completion Certificate will be handed out after successful completion of the training.

Resource persons are international and local experts.

Criteria for selection

Organisations interested in offering training on profitable environmental management on a commercial basis or as part of their portfolio will be given preference. They should ideally enrol a team of 2 or 3 trainees.

Individuals who intend to build up a career as a trainer or enhance their training and advisory skills in the field of cleaner production and eco-efficiency should have had a previous exposure to the topic.

Registration

Applicants are requested to e-mail a covering letter, CV and organizational profile to progress@gtz-bd.de mentioning "EOI for CM TOT" in the subject.

There will be a registration fee of Tk. 12,000 per person which covers the training package and transportation to the factories as well as lunch and refreshments during the class room training.

Seats are limited and will be awarded on a first come first serve basis. The last date for accepting applications is the 15th November at 3 p.m.
