The Daily Star and Standard Chartered Celebrating Life '09

A salute to womanhood through photography, lyrics and films

CORRESPONDENT

Creativity is manifested and multiplied only when it is rewarded. The Daily Star and Standard Chartered Bank, Bangladesh realised the need for that and launched a contest on films, lyrics and photography in July 2008. Last year the theme of the contest was 'Bangladesh My Love' and this year the initiative celebrated 'womanhood'.

Celebrating Life Awards Ceremony 2009 was held at the Bangabandhu International Conference Centre on November 24. Md. Zillur Rahman, President of People's Republic of Bangladesh, inaugurated the ceremony and handed the prizes to the winners.

It was a grand affair and the who's who in the Bangladeshi cultural arena turned out on the occasion. Mahfuz Anam, editor of The Daily Star, greeted the guests at the venue. Jim McCabe, CEO of Standard Chartered Bank, Bangladesh presented the vote of thanks.

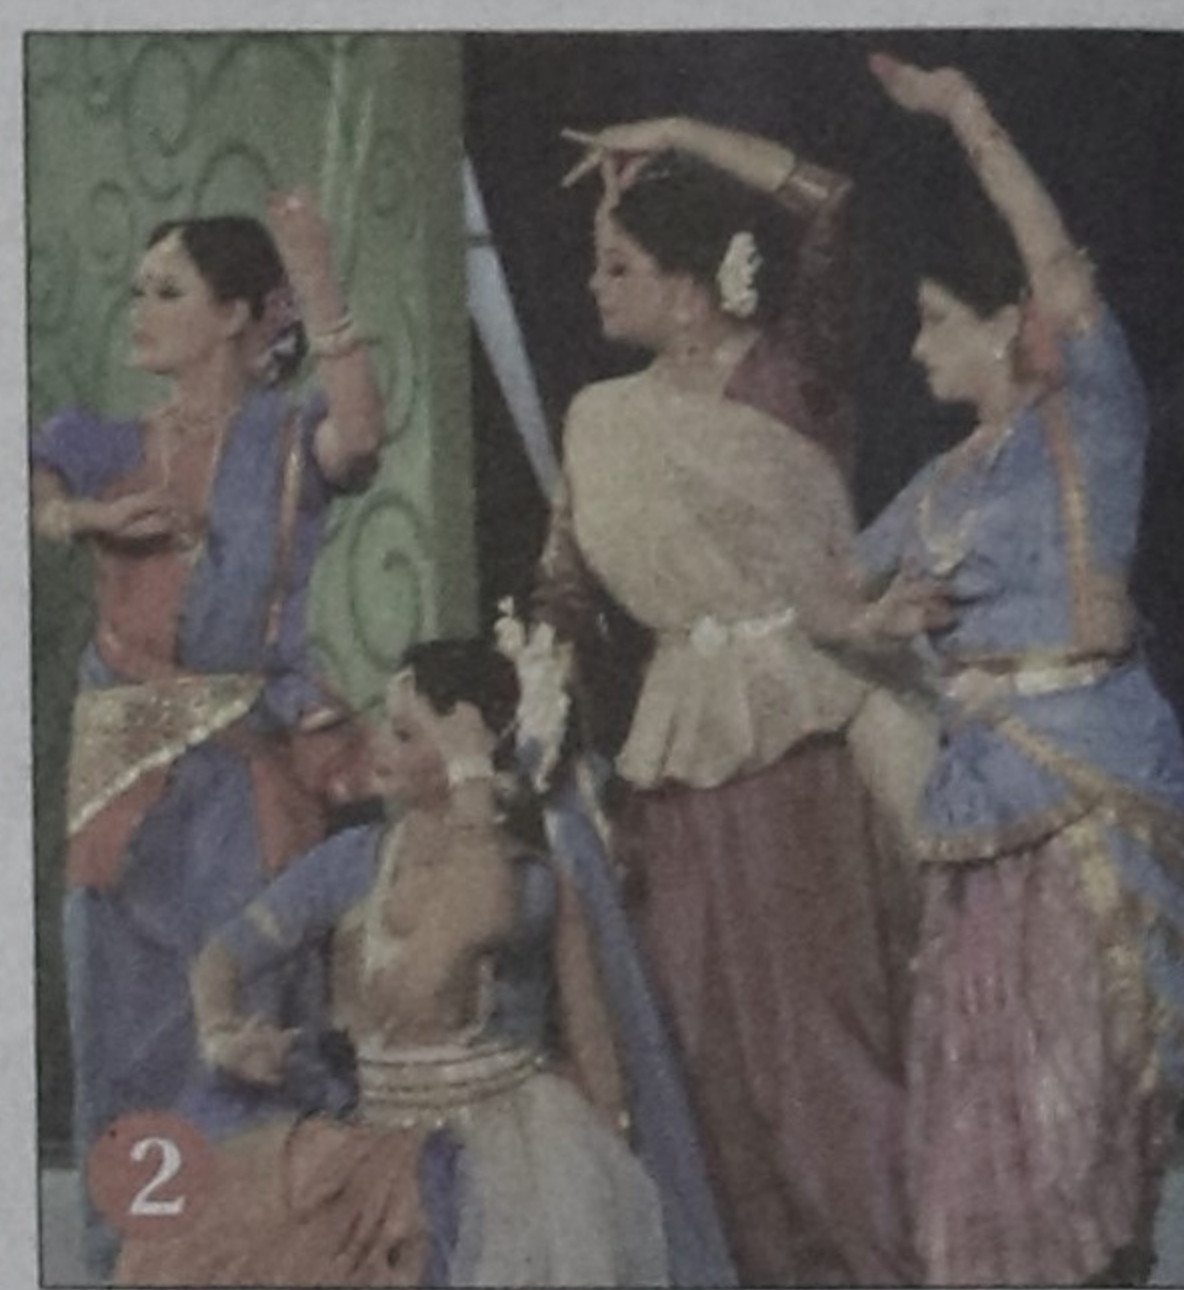

"Films, photography and songs could greatly help the country focus on its identity to the global arena," said Mahfuz Anam, editor of The Daily Star.

"During the Liberation War, Bangladeshi women played an extraordinary role," said Jim McCabe, CEO of Standard Chartered Bank, Bangladesh.

As a tribute to womanhood, renowned dancers Munmun Ahmed, Shukla Sarker, Sharmila Banerjee and Tabassum Ahmed performed a specially choreographed number. Runa Laila performed the best award-winning English song. Ferdous Ara rendered the best award-winning Bangla song. Fahmida Nabi and Krishnokoli sang other award-winning songs.

The winners were Shormin Akhter of Tangail (Bangla lyrics), Charu Madan of Dhaka (English lyrics), JA Akash of Chittagong (photography). No film was chosen for award this year by the judges.

Zaheen Music, Channel i, Shapthahik 2000, Radio abc, Urmi Group and Dots & Marks were the partners of the event.
