

SACRIFICE, FESTIVITY ALL AROUND

WHO wouldn't recognise the face of Eid-ul Azha in the capital. The long preparation for the occasion, colours in the air and home rush altogether commemorate the attempt of Hazrat Ibrahim's greatest sacrifice to satisfy Allah.

There are hundreds of faces in the shots. Their spirit of sacrifice and reunion with family kept them going even through the ordeal of risky travelling.

For the ones remaining here, the festival brings ample arrangements of joy and happiness while to some scope for hide business.

The light air and the free thoroughfares of Dhaka whisper the citizens' relief and wait for the return of the home-goers it misses during the vacation.
