

Apply for Global School Partnerships

Are you looking for innovative ways to inject an international dimension into the life of your school?

Would you like to enter into a partnership with a UK school that will enable young people to learn from each other's experience and to explore global issues together?

Do you want to give your students the chance to become global citizens?

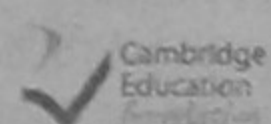

Global School Partnerships (GSP) - funded by DFID - promotes partnerships between schools in the UK and schools in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean. The programme provides advice and guidance, professional development opportunities and grants to schools that are using school partnerships as a means for developing global education within their curriculum.

For more information please visit www.britishcouncil.org/globalschools

The British Council is now inviting applications from interested schools by 10 January 2010. Please visit our website at www.britishcouncil.org/bangladesh and follow the guidance on how to apply. For any advice or queries please email ahsanul.azad@bd.britishcouncil.org.

Madrashas, Special Schools, Non-formal schools and Schools from Hill tracts, Char, Haor and Coastal areas are encouraged to apply.

Global School Partnerships is funded by DFID and delivered by the British Council in partnership with Cambridge Education Foundation, VSO and the UK One World Linking Association.
