10 outlaws arrested from remote Sirajganj villages

Six GMF cadres on fresh remand in Kushtia

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Ten outlaws were arrested in Sirajganj while six others were taken on fresh remand in Kushtia yesterday.

Police in a special drive yesterday arrested ten 'top-level members' of outlawed Purba Banglar Communist Party (PBCP) from two remote villages in Tarash upazila of Sirajganj district, reports our correspondent.

The arrestees are Toslim Uddin, 45, Rawshan Ali, 55, Khojbar Hossain, 50, Asadul Haque, 35, Abu Kashem, 40, Abu Harez, 55, Hazrat Ali, 45, Saiful Islam, 38, of Borochara village and Barat Ali, 36, and Mozibar Rahman, 42, of Paikora village in the upazila. They all were wanted in several criminal cases including robbery and killing.

Sources said, a police team led by Mahfuz Zaman Ashraf, ASP of Raiganj Circle raided a number of remote villages yesterday in the wake of sharp rise in activities of extremists in the area. The team captured the ten outlaws from Borotola and Paikora villages.

Our Correspondent in Kushtia adds: The Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court yesterday placed six outlaws belonging to Gono Mukti Fouz (GMF) on a three-day fresh remand.

Earlier, they were produced before the court seeking five-day remand.

The outlaws are Raihan Ali, Sirajul Islam Masud, Almas Gaffar Jony, Mominur Rahman Abu, Karibul Islam and Mizanur Rahman.

Police said, they took the six on fresh remand for quizzing on several murder incidents in the district allegedly carried out by GMF cadres.

The murders include Bheramara upazila Awami League (AL) joint secretary Meherul and college teacher Banda Fattah Mohon. They will also be grilled in connection with recent arms hauls from the house of Kushtia town unit AL Mahila League secretary Taslima Khan Ankh.

Police suspect that the arms supplied by Ankhni was used in killing AL leader Jamil Hasan Bachchu.

A police official said that a few AL leaders in Kumarhali upazila were involved in Bachchu killing.

They hired outlawed GMF cadres for Tk 30 lakh to kill Bachchu, he said.

"More information about the areas and nature of crimes of the outfit is expected to come out soon," said assistant police superintendent (ASP) Sadar circle) CA Halim.

Outlaw Rahim and Masud were arrested by the Detective Branch (DB) of Kushtia police on Wednesday while Johnny and Abu on Friday and Karibul and Mizanur on Saturday.

Police said the arrests on Friday and Saturday followed the confessional statements of Rahim and Masud.

Police quizzed them after judicial magistrate's court of Kushtia placed them on a two-day remand on Thursday. They also gave deposition in the court under 164 where they admitted to have hands in killing Kumarkhali upazila AL joint secretary, also chairman of Kaya union parishad Jamil Hasan Bachchu, on July 25.

They also disclosed during the interrogation names of at least 25 cadres of the outfit who took part in the killing mission, police said.

In most cases, they made phone calls and demanded illegal toll from them.

At least 25 cases of extortion were recorded with the police in three districts during the period, police said.

Talking to The Daily Star yesterday, Kushtia superintendent of police (SP) Sahabuddin Khan admitted the spate of extortion and said they have taken a number of measures to tackle the menace. At least, 15 extortionists were arrested in the three districts during the period of one and a half months, he added.

Sources said an extortionist demanded Tk 14 lakh from Islamic University treasurer Prof Shahjahan Ali and Tk 10 lakh from Prof Arbind Saha of accounting department over phone on December 9. The caller introduced himself as Mohiuddin, regional leader

Extortion now the order of the day in 3 SW districts

AMANUR AMAN, Kushtia

Extortion by criminal gangs has become the order of the day in three southwestern (SW) districts.

Around 50 such incidents took place in Kushtia, Meherpur and Chuadanga since November 1, according to police and victims.

Criminals mostly belonging to different outlawed parties demanded tolls from different sections of people including service holders, businessmen, contractors and teachers. They also threatened them with dire consequences if refused to comply with the victims said.

of an outlawed party.

The criminal also warned that they would kill or abduct their kids if the teachers fail to pay the amounts immediately.

In another incident, a local gang demanded Tk 2 lakh from a shopkeeper in Mujibnagar upazila in Meherpur a few days ago. As the shopkeeper expressed his inability, the gang pasted a slip on his grocery shop asking him not to open the shop till the amount is paid.

The trader closed his shop following the incident. He is now trying to reach an agreement with the criminals after paying a portion of the amount, said a relative of the trader.

A coaching centre owner in Kushtia town wishing anonymity told this correspondent that he regularly pays an amount to the hoodlums of the town to run his business.

He said the gang threatened to close his coaching centre or kidnap students in case of failure to pay timely.

Most of the victims do not dare to lodge case with the police fearing while a few of them have filed GD secretly, locals said.

At least, 25 such GDs have been filed with different police stations of the districts since November 1. Of them, 12 GDs were recorded in Kushtia, seven in Meherpur and six in Chuadanga.

"Petty criminals mostly commit such crimes. People from outside the districts are also involved in extortion," said the Kushtia SP.
