Arrestee flees custody

UNB, Savar

A young man, arrested in a case filed under the Women and Children Repression Prevention Act, fled Savar model police station custody Thursday night. The accused was identified as Roni, 28, son of Korban Ali of Ghoshpara in Dhamrai. Police said Roni developed an affair with Riya, 14, a student of class X of local Public Administration Training Centre and married her without the consent of her parents. After the incident, Riya's father filed a case under Women and Children Repression Prevention Act with the police station. Police detained Roni along with Riya Thursday and took him to the police station. But he ran away from the thana custody around midnight. Sub-Inspector Rezaul Karim chased the fleeing accused but stumbled down on the ground a few yards away. He was admitted to Dhaka Orthopedic Hospital with broken arm.

He also emphasised on technical education, saying that technical education opens up wide opportunity to work abroad.

Two held on rape charge

UNB, Kushtia

Police arrested two people on charge of violating a girl at Sonapur Naupara village in Sadar upazila on Wednesday. Police said Dulal, 32, son of Fikri Ali and Abbas, 48, son of Mohammad Ali entered the house of neighbour Zamir Pagla in his absence on the night of December 16. They later forcibly took his young daughter to a nearby jungle and violated her after tying up her hands, legs and mouth. Victim's father informed the matter to Sadar police on the same night and the police station directed the nearby Alampur police camp to investigate the incident. Locals said, police of the camp and the village elders in an arbitration on December 17 fined the culprits Tk 5 lakh for violating the girl. But later the village elders allegedly gave only Tk 40,000 to the victim's father. Police Superintendent Shahabuddin Khan was informed about the rape incident and as per his directive police arrested the two alleged culprits. Meanwhile, the victim filed a case against the two alleged rapists and 12 village elders.

7 hurt as BCL factions clash at Feni College

Fresh BCL body at BAU demanded

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Seven people were injured as two rival factions of Chhatra League (BCL) clashed at Feni Government College while a section of BCL leaders at BAU demanded a fresh committee of the student body yesterday.

At least seven people including two police sub-inspectors and a municipal councilor were injured in a clash between two groups of Chhatra League at Feni Government College yesterday noon, reports a correspondent.

Injured Feni Sadar police station sub-inspector (SI) Anwarul Azim was admitted to Feni Sadar Hospital. He received head injury during brickbat.

Meanwhile, former lawmaker from Feni and controversial Awami League (AL) leader Joynal Hazari at an unscheduled protest rally at Shahid Minar premises at Trunk Road in the town yesterday afternoon condemned alleged attack on his house.

"Why they have attacked my house after the clash at Feni Government College? I have shown much patience. From now on I will act."

Hazari said, "I had something to say at the reception accorded to me after I came out of jail. But it could not take place. So now I am speaking at this protest rally."

Police and witnesses said, some outsiders led by leaders of Feni college Chhatra League former committee Nizam Patwari and Russell Hazari entered the college campus at noon.

The leaders of BCL incumbent committee first informed the matter to the college authorities but at one stage locked in an altercation with the outsiders.

As the workers of BCL former committee beat up a student, Pulak, 19, a police team went to the college and asked the outsiders to leave the campus. The leaders and workers of the incumbent committee then chased and clashed with the members of the former committee.

During the clash, six people including SI Anwarul Azim, SI Ashiqur Rahman and Nizamuddin Patwari were injured.

Greater Khulna Development Action Coordination Committee forms a human chain near Picture Palace in the city yesterday demanding steps for sustainable development of the region and its protection from the impact of climate change.

Human chain in Khulna to realise 10-pt demand

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

More than 10,000 people formed a human chain in the city yesterday for realising the 10-point demand of the city dwellers.

The Greater Khulna Development Action Coordination Committee (GKDACC) organised the programme in the morning.

Committee President Liakat Ali led the programme which was also attended by city mayor Talukder Abdul Khaleque, Nazrul Islam Monju MP, Md Jalaluddin MP, former MP and BNP leader M Nurul Islam.

The leaders and workers of different political parties, professional bodies, students and other people from all walks of life took part in the programme.

The demands include reopening of the closed mills, including Khulna Newspaper Mill (KNM), arranging international cricket match at Khulna Abu Naser Stadium and upgrading 250-bed Khulna Medical College and Hospital to 500-bed one.

The city mayor who led the programme said Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina is the only head of the government since independence to pay due attention to the needs of the people of the south-western region of the country.

Hasina has approved the Tk 531 crore gas distribution project which includes Khulna, he said.

The government allocated Tk 51 crore for development of Sheikh Abu Naser Divisional Stadium and making it suitable for World Cup cricket venue.

Besides, Tk 13 crore have also been allocated for modernising Khulna railway station and Tk 75 crore for infrastructural development of Khulna City Corporation (KCC), the mayor said.

GKDACC president Liakat Ali thanked the prime minister for approving gas distribution network project and said her government should put an end to the discriminatory moves that so long hampered economic development in the south-western region.

He hoped that the government would now take up effective and positive measures to face natural disasters, rehabilitate Sidr and Aila affected people, save the Sundarbans from adverse impact of climate change.

Cuta election on Dec 31

UNB, Chittagong

The elections to the Chittagong University Teachers' Association (Cuta) will be held on December 31. Pro-BNP and Jamaat-e-Islami teachers under 'white panel' and ruling party backed teachers under 'yellow panel' are contesting the election.

Dr Iftekhar Uddin Chowdhury of Sociology Department, will vie from the 'yellow panel' for the post of president against Dr Abul Kashem Chowdhury of the same department from 'white panel'.

On the other hand, Dr Ahmad Salauddin and Md Helal Uddin Nizami from 'yellow panel' will contest for the posts of general secretary and vice-president respectively.

Meanwhile, the 'white panel' selected SM Nasrul Kadir and Dr Md Al-Amin for general secretary and vice-president posts respectively.

The other nominated candidates from the 'yellow panel' are Kazi SM Khairul Alam for joint secretary and Md Rezaul Karim for treasurer posts.

The 'white panel's' candidates for joint secretary post is Dr Md Atiar Rahman and for treasurer post is Dr Md Saleh Zahur.

A total of 647 faculty members of the university will cast their votes, said chief election commissioner Dr Azizur Rahman, a teacher of the botany department.

He said the faculty members could participate in advance voting today (December 27).

Notebooks seized in Khulna, sellers fined

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Members of the Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) yesterday seized guide and notebooks worth Tk 15 lakh in the city.

Acting on a tip-off, a team of Rab-6 raided the store-rooms of Agrani Transport Agency at Dak Bungalow Road under Khulna Sadar Police Station and Sundarban Courier Service at Shibbari Road under Sonadanga Police Station and seized the guide and notebooks of classes two to eight from the two places.

Lt Commander Abu

Shoiab, who led the drives, said these guide and notebooks, banned for sale, were brought to Khulna from Dhaka on different days from December 19 to December 23 by proprietors of Noor Library, Azizia Library, Pathak Library and Famous Library of KD Ghose Road under Khulna Sadar Police Station.

Executive Magistrate Zillur Rahman, who was present during the drives, said a sum of Tk 75,000 was realised as fine from the bookshop owners. No one was arrested.

Jubo League man held on charge of hotel looting

UNB, Bogra

A local Jubo League leader was arrested on Friday on charge of looting money and a mobile phone set from a hotel after assaulting a hotel employee in Dhunat poura area.

The arrestee, Saidul Islam, 40, is secretary of Dhunat poura unit Jubo League and son of Khorshed Ali of Sadar upazila.

Locals said, a group of Jubo League men swooped on Moon Foods hotel on the night of December 19. They at one stage beat up the hotel employees and looted Tk 39,000 from the cash box and a mobile phone set.

After the incident, hotel owner Matiar Rahman, also a freedom fighter, filed a case against four Jubo League leaders, including Saidul and Chand Mia, with the local police station.

Police after preliminary investigation arrested Saidul in the afternoon.
