Zainul Abedin birth anniversary celebration at Charukala

JAMIL MAHMUD

On the 95th birth anniversary of pioneer artist Shilpacharya Zainul Abedin (1914-1976), a daylong festival was held at the Charukala (Faculty of Fine Arts, DU) premises on December 29. Organised by the Faculty the daylong festival featured a 'mela', musical soiree, discussion and an award giving event.

On the occasion, the organisers honoured two leading contemporary artists-- Safiuddin Ahmed and K.G Subramanian (India) with the 'Shilpacharya Zainul Abedin Shammanana'.

The festival began early in the morning with the laying of wreaths at Zainul Abedin's grave (before the DU central mosque).

Apart from being a painter, Zainul Abedin's tireless effort to introduce institutional education in the fine arts made him a recognised figure. He was the founder-principal of the then Art College (now Faculty of Fine Arts, DU).

The discussion and award giving ceremony was held at the Bakultala premises in the afternoon. Welcoming the audience the dean of the Faculty of Fine Arts and eminent artist Rafiqun Nabi said, "Zainul had to struggle a great deal to build the institute. Initially it was known as a small institute of art-lovers but now it has turned into a faculty." Rafiqun Nabi also pointed out that from now on Zainul's birthday will be celebrated on a large scale at the Charukala premises.

Artist Nisar Hossain, who is also a teacher of the Faculty, asserted that until this year, the birthday celebrations of Zainul were a small event.

AAMS Arefin Siddique, Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University was the chief guest at the programme. He handed over the awards to the recipient artists. Safiuddin Ahmed was not present as he was unwell. Safiuddin's son Ahmed Nazir received the crest on his father's behalf.

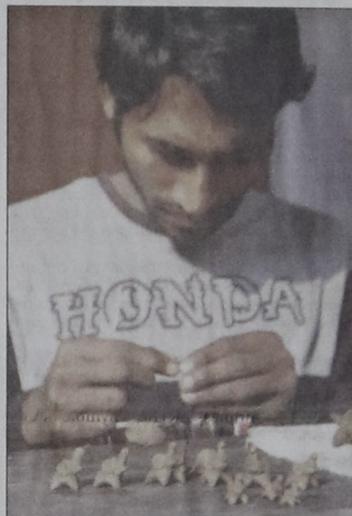

In his speech K.G Subramanian expressed his gratitude for the honour bestowed on him. "I feel like I'm at home," said the veteran Indian artist.

Among others, Begum Jahannara Abedin, (widow of Zainul Abedin) and artist Shahabuddin Ahmed were the speakers at the programme.

After the discussion, singers rendered Rabindra Sangeet at the Bakultala premises. A group of Baul singers from Kushtia also sang several songs.

The daylong 'mela' in front of the Print Making and Painting Department was the main attraction of the festival. The 'mela' featured the works of the students of the Faculty FFA and artisans who had been invited from different parts of the country.

Students exhibited their small artworks, including prints, paintings and sculptures. The artisans from Rajshahi, Manikganj, Nawabganj and Dhaka displayed their designs on clay pots 'Lakkhishara' and 'Shakher Hari'; nets for household use called 'Shika' and artworks made of 'Shola'.

The daylong festival featured a 'mela', musical soiree, discussion and an award giving event.

All programmes are in local time. The Daily Star will not be responsible for any change in the programme.
