A
Legendary
Patriot

Binod Bihari Chowdhury is one of those rare personalities whose love for his motherland transcends the very boundaries of time. He has nurtured a lifelong belief that love and sacrifice for the motherland is the ultimate goal of life. Widely known as a volatile revolutionary countering marauders, he has also been a social reformer - striving to establish good norms and equality in the society. These values prompted him to partake in the ousting of colonial rulers and the creation of a sovereign motherland. The Magnum Opus in his revolutionary life came in the form of the independence of this land that we so proudly call "Bangladesh".

Binod Bihari was born out of the womb of his motherland. He lives today to serve her with his life. Unitrend remembers the great revolutionary on the wake of his 100th birthday. Our heartfelt gratitude to this "legendary patriot".

We wish all of you a patriotic 2010.
