Work at Teknaf land port resumes

A CORRESPONDENT, Cox's

Activities at Teknaf land port in Cox's Bazar resumed yesterday after withdrawal of an indefinite strike enforced by the businessmen.

Activities at the port came to a halt on December 31 following a scuffle between a businessman and a port manager over clearance of a truck carrying excess of imported dried fish from Myanmar. The government incurred a loss of about Tk 2 crore in revenue due to the strike, port sources said.

A meeting between the businessmen and port authorities was held at Teknaf upazila nirbahi officer's office at 11:00am yesterday. As the
