Engine boat capsizes

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Chittagong

A passenger went missing as an engine boat capsized in the Karnaphuli River yesterday morning. Abdur Rahim, 20, a garment worker, failed to swim ashore while others were rescued by nearby boatmen, said officer-in-charge (OC) of Patenga police station. Sources said the boat carrying more than 15 passengers from Badalpur terminal under Karnaphuli police station was crossing the river for No 14 ghat at Patenga at around 6:30am. Most of the passengers, including workers of different garment factories at Chittagong Export Processing Zone (CEPZA) in the city, were coming to their workplaces.

Fugitive convict held

UNB, Jhenidah

Members of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) in a drive on Saturday arrested a fugitive convict from a bus at Sadar upazila bus stand. Arrested Dipu Sikder, 40, hailed from the upazila. Police said, Dipu was sentenced to 7 years imprisonment in absentia by a court in Faridpur in a phensidyl smuggling case recently. Acting on a tip-off, a Rab team intercepted the bus of 'Diganta Paribahan' and arrested him. Police said, Dipu was arrested along with phensidyl syrup in Faridpur and a case was filed against him under Narcotics Control Act. Later, he secured release on bail and went into hiding.

Girl's body recovered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Police on Thursday morning recovered beheaded body of an unidentified teenage girl from Parbatipur and sent it to Dinajpur Medical College and Hospital for autopsy. Being informed, a police team went to Shonapur village under Parbatipur upazila and recovered the body of the girl from a bamboo cluster. Police said that the girl, aged around 18, was killed Wednesday night probably by some professional killers. A case was filed with Parbatipur police station.

Housewife murdered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Nilphamari

A mother of four was beaten to death allegedly by husband at a village in Nilphamari on Saturday night. Locals and police said, housewife Ayesha Khatun, 35, of Kashiram Kismat Dangi village in Saidpur upazila could not take care of their cattle on the day as she was not feeling well. At about 10:00 pm when her husband Zahedul Islam, 43, returned home from work he found the cattle hungry. This made him angry and at a stage of altercation over the matter Zahedul started beating Ayesha mercilessly. Ayesha died on the spot. Locals caught fleeing Zahedul and handed him over to police.

Woman killed by brother

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sathkira

A woman was murdered allegedly by her elder brother on Thursday night following a quarrel over paternal land at Elishpur village in Kalaroa upazila. Police later arrested Al-Amin for killing Fulsurat Khatun, 27, daughter of Nurul Amin of the village. Fulsurat was mother of one child and had been residing at her father's house at Elishpur after her divorce about five years ago. Quoting locals police said, Fulsurat Khatun and Al-Amin were at odds for long over a piece of parental land. A case was also pending with a court at Sathkira over the dispute. They said, Al-Amin strangled her sister at dead of night.

A large number of people including students join a human chain in Thakurgaon town yesterday demanding immediate steps to stop drug trade in the area. Local youths under the banner of Chhatra-Jubo Samaj organised the human chain and held a rally to create awareness against evils of drugs that threaten the locals, especially the young generation.

21 shops gutted in Netrakona, Noakhali

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Fire in Netrakona and Noakhali on Friday and Saturday gutted at least 21 shops.

Fifteen shops were gutted at Kalmakanda upazila in Netrakona district when a fire broke out in Kalmakanda Bazar area on Saturday midnight, according to our correspondent.

Police and locals said, the fire originated from electric short circuit at a shop and engulfed the adjacent shops.

Firefighters rushed to spot to bring the fire under control. The loss was estimated at Tk 20 lakh.

BSS adds: Six shops were gutted in a fire at Bangla Bazaar in Sonaimuri upazila of Noakhali in the early hours of Friday.

Police said, the fire originated from a grocery shop at 1:00 am soon engulfed five other shops in the market.

Being informed, firefighting units from Chaumuhani reached the spot at about 2:00am, but the shops were burnt by that time.

Police said the fire might have originated from an electric short circuit.
