

Four outlaws arrested in Madaripur

Arms recovered from Pabna village

A CORRESPONDENT, Madaripur

Shibchar police in a six-hour long drive yesterday arrested four outlaws including Hasa Bhuiyan.

Police also recovered a US made revolver and three bullets from their possession.

Officer-in-charge (OC) of Shibchar police station Abdul Jalil said, acting on a tip off, four police teams led SI Sheikh Abdullah, Monir Hossain and ASI Mobarak Hossain launched the joint drive in the morning in Nilokhi Kawarhat area of Shibchar.

During the drive, the gang members jumped into the river to flee but failed.

Police arrested top outlaw Hasa Bhuiyan, Rafique Bhuiyan, Mahbub Bhuiyan and Jahangir Bepari.

Hasa Bhuiyan is an accused in several cases including one for looting Duttapara police outpost, police said.

According to our correspondent in Pabna, Rab on Friday morning recovered two firearms and eight bullets from Shimulchara village under Aitakula police station.

Acting on a tip-off, a Rab-12 team raided Shimulchara Primary School premises when the outlawed operatives were holding a meeting. Sensing presence of Rab, the criminals managed to flee leaving behind a 303 rifle, a pipe gun and eight bullets of 303 rifle.

Tragic

A CORRESPONDENT, Madaripur

Sajib, 15, an SSC examinee from Rajoir KGS Institution died as a ball accidentally hit his head while playing cricket at the institution ground yesterday noon.

Sajib fell on the ground and other players rushed him to hospital where on-duty doctors declared him dead.

Sajib is son of Golam Kibria, religious studies teacher of the institution.

Awfully dilapidated Kadamtali Bridge across Ichhamati River at Kacharipara in Pabna town poses risk of accidents, especially at night, thanks to the indifference of authorities.

12 houses, 18 shops and sugarcane field gutted

STAR NATIONAL DESK

At least 12 houses and 18 shops besides a sugarcane field have been gutted in fire in four districts.

A correspondent in Lalmonirhat reports: Fire gutted 12 houses early yesterday at Napit Para village of Vadai union in Aditmari upazila.

Sources said, the fire originated from the kitchen of Ramesh Chandra Shil at around 1:30am and engulfed the adjacent houses.

Fire fighters from Lalmonirhat rushed to the spot and extinguished the fire at around 4:00am, police said.

Santosh Chandra Shil said, his two houses, one full with tobacco, were gutted. The fire damaged property worth Tk 10 lakh, according to a preliminary estimate.

In Barguna, a devastating fire on Friday night gutted 12 shops and a truck at Arpangasia Bazaar of Amtali upazila.

Local UP chairman Nurul Haq Talukdar said, the fire originated from an electric short circuit at a shop at the market and quickly engulfed the adjacent shops.

Being informed, fire fighters from Amtali town rushed to the spot and brought the blaze under control.

The loss in the incident was primarily estimated at Tk 25 lakh, Mizanur Rahman, OC of Amtali police station told BSS.

A Noakhali report adds: Six shops and a dwelling house were gutted in separate fire incidents in Subarnachar and Sadar upazilas on Wednesday.

UNB quoting locals said, a fire originated from an electric short circuit at a tea stall at Charmatua Moulavi Bazaar in Sadar upazila and spread to the nearby five shops at night.

On information fire fighters from Maizdi fire station rushed to the spot and extinguished the blaze. They estimated the extent of loss from the fire at about Tk 8 lakh.

In another incident, a fire broke out at the house of Haris Chowdhury in Hat area of Subarnachar upazila on Wednesday.

Locals said, the fire originating from the kitchen burnt down the entire house in the afternoon.

Our correspondent in Kushtia reports: Fire gutted around 60 bighas of sugarcane under Darshana Carew and Company on Wednesday.

The fire originated at about 2:30pm from unknown sources and gutted the sugarcane of Begumganj field, a commercial sugarcane yielding plot of the company under Chuadanga Sadar upazila.

Fire brigade sources said, they brought the fire under control at about 8:30pm.

Earlier on December 23, around 125 bighas of sugarcane of the company on Sorojganj commercial plot were gutted.

2 brothers stabbed to death

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Two brothers were stabbed to death allegedly by relatives at Ojharpara village in Charghat upazila yesterday.

Victims of land dispute, Nazmul Haque, 40, died on the spot while his brother Kanai, 35, succumbed to injuries at Rajshahi Medical College and Hospital, said police and hospital sources.

At around 12:30pm when the two brothers went to clean a date tree near their home, their relatives protested claiming that the tree belonged to them, said Hamidur Rashid, officer-in-charge of Charghat police station.

At a stage of altercation, the relatives hit the two with spears. They had a long-standing dispute with their uncle over the land, said the OC quoting villagers.

Police arrested the victims' uncle Bachchu and his son Babu after they surrendered to police. Police also picked up Bachchu's wife Baby and daughter Seema for interrogation.

Grisly acid attacks on teenage girl, housewife

STAR NATIONAL DESK

A teenage girl and a young housewife received burn injuries in two incidents of acid attack in Munshiganj and Satkhira on Tuesday.

A correspondent from Munshiganj reports: A jilted young man threw acid on his former lover in Balasur Natun village under Sreenagar upazila in Munshiganj early Tuesday.

Maqsuda Akter Swarna, 18, was rushed to local health clinic and later shifted to Dhaka for better treatment. Locals caught Belal Sheikh, 22, and handed him over to police.

Sreenagar police station OC Sakawat Hossain said, Belal and Maqsuda had a love affair for the last two years. But Maqsuda's parents fixed her marriage with an expatriate and the wedding was set for February.

Belal was scheduled to fly to Dubai on Wednesday night. Enraged, he went to Maqsuda's house and talked all night with Maqsuda. But around morning Belal poured acid on the girl.

Hearing Maqsuda's screams, relatives rushed to the room and caught Belal. They handed him over to police.

In another incident in Satkhira, a housewife who received serious burn injuries in acid attack at Chhoto Kupot village in Shyamnagar upazila on Tuesday morning, is fighting for life at Satkhira Sadar Hospital, reports our correspondent.

According to police, victim Rozina Khatun Moina, 25, is wife of Al Amin Dablu of village Chhoto Kupot.

Quoting locals police said, Rozina, daughter of Samsur Rahman Sardar of Pania village in Kaliganj upazila was married to Al Amin Dablu, son of Faruk Ahmed of Chhoto Kupot four years ago. At the time of marriage, Al Amin took dowry amounting to Tk 50,000. But recently he demanded more money from Rozina's poor father. Later he divorced her and sent the divorce letter to Rozina.

As Rozina did not receive the divorce letter, Al Amin and others threw acid on her on Tuesday when she came out to respond to call of nature at about 4:30 am. Rozina received burn injuries in her face, hands and chest.

Locals admitted her to Shyamnagar Upazila Health Complex and later she was shifted to Satkhira Sadar Hospital.

The victim's father Samsur Rahman Sardar filed a case with Shyamnagar police station accusing four people.

4 of 'Jiner Badsha' gang caught in Gaibandha

Two cheats held in Nilphamari

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Police arrested six cheats including four members of 'Jiner Badsha' gang in Gaibandha and Nilphamari districts on Monday and Tuesday.

Police seized 63 brass-made images of Hindu goddesses and equipment used for casting images from the house of Provat Chandra at village Sakpala under Gobindagnaj upazila early Tuesday, reports our Gaibandha correspondent.

Provat Chandra was arrested on charge of supplying images to the members of Jiner Badsha, a network of cheats, police said.

In another drive, police arrested one Alhaj from village Bagda of Gobindagnaj upazila when he was preparing to receive Tk 60 thousand from one Momtaz Begum of Brahmanbaria district.

Fallen into the trap of Jiner Badsha gang, Momtaz earlier gave money to Alhaj to get relief from 'spiritual curse'.

As the man demanded more, she became suspicious and sought help of police.

Following confession of Alhaj, police later arrested two other cheats -- Harun Mia of village Mariya and Shahidul of village Balua.

All of them are wanted in several cases, police said.

The cheat clique using the name of Jiner Badsha have trapped many people into giving huge money, said Fazlul Karim, OC of Gobindagnaj Police Station.

The gang sold a brass image inscribed with golden letters for Tk one lakh to five lakh each, he said.

Our Nilphamari correspondent adds: Five members of a family in Jaldhaka upazila of Nilphamari district were hospitalised as they became unconscious after taking toxic food offered by cheats on Monday night.

Police arrested the two cheats -- Yousuf Ali, 33, and Santona Begum, 25.

The two strangers introducing themselves as husband and wife, came to the house of Atiqul Islam at Kathali village of Jaldhaka upazila on Monday night, locals and police said.

Saying that they were on the way to a distant place in Bogra, they sought shelter for that night.

As Atiqul allowed the strangers to stay at his house, the couple cooked rice, meat and pulses and persuaded Atiqul and his family members to eat with them.

After taking the meal, all the five members of the family -- Atiqul Islam, 32, his wife Tajmina Akhtar, 30, daughter Rashida Begum, 10, son Tariqul Islam, 6, and Atiqul's nephew's wife Tahmina Akhtar, 18, fell unconscious.

As the sheltered couple stole valuables of the house and made preparations to flee, a female neighbour sensed something wrong and peeped through the hole of the bamboo fencing of the house.

Seeing the unbelievable scene, she began to cry loudly. Locals rushed to the spot, caught the cheat couple and handed them over to Jaldhaka police.

The victims were admitted to Jaldhaka Upazila Health Complex.
