Position Vacancy Announcement Re-Advertisement
The United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Bangladesh invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for recruitment of a Project Management Specialist (Local Governance & Democracy Advisor) for the Office of Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED).
The Local Governance & Democracy Advisor provides advice and analysis to the DG-ED Office on a broad range of issues related to democratic decentralization, local governance strengthening and citizen participation in local governance and local governments' association building. The Advisor provides leadership and focus for USAID/Bangladesh's programs related strengthening local governance, decentralization of public services, effective management of public resources, local government revenue generation activities, citizen participation and transparency at the local level. She works with the Democracy and Governance (DG) Team and provides technical and analytical input for all aspects of local governance and decentralization and citizen participation portfolios. She is involved in a wide range of DG program activities, from design to implementation and evaluation. This position acts as the Mission's Agreement/Contract Officer's Technical Representative for all decentralization and local governance related contracts or grants. She will be the Mission's primary link with other organizations in Bangladesh focusing on decentralization and local governance strengthening, including NGOs, donors agencies, research organizations, and the Government of Bangladesh. The Advisor helps develop strategies to promote policy dialogue around fiscal and administrative decentralization, increase local governments management capacity, promote transparency and citizen involvement in local decision-making processes, and strengthen pluralistic local government associations. She acts as the technical point person and represents the Mission in coordination meetings and initiatives involving other donors and Government of Bangladesh (GOB) counterparts.
The Advisor is responsible for coordinating and monitoring activities to attain specific results under the Good Governance program area. The incumbent makes regular field trips and meets senior management and project officials of implementing partner organizations to assess the progress of the project activities. This position provides direction, judgment, and input relating to program decisions on local governance and decentralization. She also suggests changes to the DG strategy related to these areas when necessary.
Required Qualifications:
Applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work.
1. Education: The incumbent must have a Master's degree in social science, public administration, political science, or other related discipline. In absence of a Master's degree, five years of progressively responsible, job-related, development experience may be substituted.
2. Language Proficiency: English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (i.e., Level IV). Must be able to write and speak in a concise and thoughtful manner on development programs and issues. Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required.
3. Prior Work Experience: Five to seven years work experience in an NGO, Government, other donor agencies, a think tank or academic institution, or any other private sector organization associated with the promotion of democracy and good governance is required. At least two to three years of related management experience is preferred.
4. Knowledge: In-depth knowledge of democratic institutions and processes in Bangladesh is essential. Technical knowledge must be authoritative, comprehensive and nuanced enough to aid strategic thinking and planning. In-depth understanding of local governments and their strengths and weaknesses is also required. Knowledge of issues related to capacity development, program development, and organizational management for grassroots NGOs is required. Knowledge of gender and development principles is preferred.
5. Skills and Abilities: Ability to develop and maintain an extensive range of contacts in government, donor agencies and NGO sector. The incumbent must have good interpersonal skills, the ability to interact with and inspire a range of individual actors and leaders. She must have the ability to work well and take initiative with minimal supervision, the ability to articulate programs and represent USAID policy positions at senior levels with the Government of Bangladesh, NGOs, CSOs, and other donors. The incumbent must have outstanding writing skills and excellent word processing, spreadsheet, and internet skills.
Interested applicants must submit resume along with a one page cover letter stating level of education and experience that describes incumbent's suitability for this position. Please submit applications to the Human Resources Section, USAID/Bangladesh, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than February 25, 2010. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.

Position Vacancy Announcement Re-Advertisement
The United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Bangladesh invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for recruitment of a Project Management Specialist (Local Governance & Democracy Advisor) for the Office of Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED).
The Local Governance & Democracy Advisor provides advice and analysis to the DG-ED Office on a broad range of issues related to democratic decentralization, local governance strengthening and citizen participation in local governance and local governments' association building. The Advisor provides leadership and focus for USAID/Bangladesh's programs related strengthening local governance, decentralization of public services, effective management of public resources, local government revenue generation activities, citizen participation and transparency at the local level. She works with the Democracy and Governance (DG) Team and provides technical and analytical input for all aspects of local governance and decentralization and citizen participation portfolios. She is involved in a wide range of DG program activities, from design to implementation and evaluation. This position acts as the Mission's Agreement/Contract Officer's Technical Representative for all decentralization and local governance related contracts or grants. She will be the Mission's primary link with other organizations in Bangladesh focusing on decentralization and local governance strengthening, including NGOs, donors agencies, research organizations, and the Government of Bangladesh. The Advisor helps develop strategies to promote policy dialogue around fiscal and administrative decentralization, increase local governments management capacity, promote transparency and citizen involvement in local decision-making processes, and strengthen pluralistic local government associations. She acts as the technical point person and represents the Mission in coordination meetings and initiatives involving other donors and Government of Bangladesh (GOB) counterparts.
The Advisor is responsible for coordinating and monitoring activities to attain specific results under the Good Governance program area. The incumbent makes regular field trips and meets senior management and project officials of implementing partner organizations to assess the progress of the project activities. This position provides direction, judgment, and input relating to program decisions on local governance and decentralization. She also suggests changes to the DG strategy related to these areas when necessary.
Required Qualifications:
Applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work.
1. Education: The incumbent must have a Master's degree in social science, public administration, political science, or other related discipline. In absence of a Master's degree, five years of progressively responsible, job-related, development experience may be substituted.
2. Language Proficiency: English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (i.e., Level IV). Must be able to write and speak in a concise and thoughtful manner on development programs and issues. Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required.
3. Prior Work Experience: Five to seven years work experience in an NGO, Government, other donor agencies, a think tank or academic institution, or any other private sector organization associated with the promotion of democracy and good governance is required. At least two to three years of related management experience is preferred.
4. Knowledge: In-depth knowledge of democratic institutions and processes in Bangladesh is essential. Technical knowledge must be authoritative, comprehensive and nuanced enough to aid strategic thinking and planning. In-depth understanding of local governments and their strengths and weaknesses is also required. Knowledge of issues related to capacity development, program development, and organizational management for grassroots NGOs is required. Knowledge of gender and development principles is preferred.
5. Skills and Abilities: Ability to develop and maintain an extensive range of contacts in government, donor agencies and NGO sector. The incumbent must have good interpersonal skills, the ability to interact with and inspire a range of individual actors and leaders. She must have the ability to work well and take initiative with minimal supervision, the ability to articulate programs and represent USAID policy positions at senior levels with the Government of Bangladesh, NGOs, CSOs, and other donors. The incumbent must have outstanding writing skills and excellent word processing, spreadsheet, and internet skills.
Interested applicants must submit resume along with a one page cover letter stating level of education and experience that describes incumbent's suitability for this position. Please submit applications to the Human Resources Section, USAID/Bangladesh, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than February 25, 2010. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.
